Count Us In Jason Kingsley, Mitchell Levitz, 1994-01-12 Award winner Hearing about Down syndrome directly from these young men has a good deal more impact than reading any guide from a professional Booklist This book is in Mitchell and Jason's own words We wanted readers to have a true to life sense of their charm their directness their humor and warmth and yes their intelligence At ages nineteen and twenty two respectively Jason Kingsley and Mitchell Levitz shared their innermost thoughts feelings hopes dreams and their experiences growing up with Down syndrome Their frank discussion of what mattered most in their lives careers friendships school sex marriage finances politics and independence earned Count Us In numerous national awards including the EDI Award from the National Easter Seal Society More important their wit intelligence candor and charm made for a powerful and inspirational statement about the full potential of people with developmental disabilities challenging prevailing stereotypes In this edition with a new afterword the authors also discuss their lives since then milestones and challenges and changes both expected and unexpected Their parents were told to expect nothing But Jason Kingsley and Mitchell Levitz were lucky because their parents didn't listen They gave their sons that chance to show how far they could go and they've astounded everyone Jane Pauley This single volume will do more to change stereotypes about Down syndrome than any book I have read These two young men steal our hearts and wash away generations of misconceptions Mary L Coleman MD Emeritus Georgetown University An excellent illustration of what it's like to have Down syndrome Most moving here are the portrayals of strong family relationships Publishers Weekly Will open eyes and touch the heart Library Journal

What's Wrong with the Christian Right Jan G. Linn, 2004 Silence may be golden but not when it comes to the extremes of the Christian Right That is why Jan Linn wrote his new book What's Wrong With The Christian Right just released by BrownWalker Press As a former college and seminary teacher and author of ten previous books Linn uses the Christian Right's own words and actions to show the extent to which it is trying to reshape both American politics and Christianity into its own image The book describes in detail the agenda of the Christian Right the tactics it employs and the ways it plays loose with truth It is also a call to action to everyone disturbed by the power and influence of the Christian Right With careful documentation this book exposes the extent to which the Christian Right is influencing American politics who its political allies are the ways it is working to re shape America into its own image and the hypocrisy it practices in the process The book also takes issue with the Christian Right's agenda on major issues and the distorted image its extremism presents of Christianity What's Wrong With The Christian Right is ultimately a call to all liberal minded people especially people of faith to join the effort to offset the Christian Right as the dominant religious voice in America today Several outstanding leaders in their field have commended the book to a wide reading audience Dr Joan Brown Campbell former General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ calls the book a must read Dr Albert Pennybacker founder of the Clergy Leadership Network describes it as a book for these times Dr Arvid Lundy retired from

Los Alamos National Laboratories and a non Christian agnostic describes the book as a joy to read James Autry of People for the American Way describes it a careful thoughtful well researched examination of those we call the Christian Right
