S. Rasmussen, 2014-01-30 William James and the Transatlantic Conversation focuses on the American philosopher and psychologist William James 1842-1910 and his engagements with European thought together with the multidisciplinary reception of his work on both sides of the Atlantic since his death James's encounters with European thinkers and ideas ran throughout his early life and across his distinguished international career in which he participated in a number of transatlantic conversations in science philosophy psychology religion ethics and literature This volume explores and extends these conversations by drawing together twelve scholars from a range of disciplines on both sides of the Atlantic to assess James's work in all its variety to trace his multidisciplinary reception across the twentieth century and to evaluate his legacy in the twenty first century The first half of the book considers James's many intellectual influences and the second half focuses on A Pluralistic Universe 1909 the published text of his 1908 Hibbert Lectures at Oxford University as a key text for assessing James's transatlantic conversations. The pluralistic transatlantic currents addressed in the first part of the volume enable a fuller understanding of James's philosophy of pluralism that forms the explicit focus for the second part. Taken as a collection, the volume is unique in scholarship on James in generating transatlantic interdisciplinary and cross-generational dialogues and it repositions James as an important international thinker and arguably the most distinctive American intellectual figure of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Alice Meynell Viola Meynell, 1929 Lewis Carroll, "Alice in Wonderland" as a Work of Nonsense Fiction Christin Maier, 2015-01-15

Bachelor Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Vechta IKG language English abstract

The following thesis is about Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland as a Work of Nonsense Fiction. Carroll's masterpiece Alice in Wonderland which includes both books, namely Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and its sequel Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There, does not only belong to the most popular English children's books but it is also regarded as a classic around the world. Especially in English-speaking countries, lines from the Alice books have been as often cited as lines from Shakespeare or the Bible. Charles Lutwidge Dodgson, who used the pseudonym Lewis Carroll for his writings, made up the tale Alice in Wonderland for his most loved child friend and muse Alice Liddell and her sisters during a boat trip on the River Thames. Lewis Carroll is known next to Edward Lear as one of the most famous Nonsense poets and writers. Moreover, it is claimed that he was the first author to introduce Nonsense into children's literature and as a result had a huge impact with his Alice books on English children's literature. The split between the two personalities, namely the Victorian author Carroll and the Reverend and mathematician Dodgson who taught at Christ Church Oxford, has to be considered in order to get a better understanding of the Alice books as a Nonsense Work. This is exactly what will be done in this thesis. Firstly, there will be given a general overview on the author's life Secondly the boat trip itself and with it the genesis of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There will be discussed After that a closer examination of the plot and its construction in both books will be given In addition similarities and differences will be shown between the construction of the plot of the first and the second Alice book Furthermore the characterization of the eponymous heroine Alice will be analyzed and will be regarded under Alice's ability of imagination A special focus will be on the Nonsense fiction as such A definition of Literary Nonsense will be given and varieties of Literary Nonsense will be examined on the basis of the two Alice books Additionally Lewis Carroll's well known poem Jabberwocky in Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There will be analyzed as an example of Nonsense Fiction In the context of the poem Jabberwocky there has also to be looked on the still ubiquitous Humpty Dumpty who is next to the Duchess March Hare
