Early One Morning:

Early One Morning Rutland Boughton, 1910 Set Sail with me to Pennsylvania Bennett Michael Schwartz, 2025-07-12 There are systems for analyzing folk song tune families This study proposes a system for analyzing folk song text families How is one song's text related to others I can use its title and first line to find the text in Steve Roud's Folk Song or Broadside Indexes and in Robert Waltz's Traditional Ballad Index Both researchers list texts they consider to be the same song This study presents an approach to furthering the analysis I compare a collection of texts line by line A count of lines shared and not shared establishes the distance between each pair of texts Groups of texts that share a substantial number of lines are part of a song family Texts in subgroups that share still more lines form a branch of the family Texts that differ only in a few lines are the same song Variations between branches are clues to the family history I assembled texts I thought related to Laws N37 John George Riley II in G Malcolm Laws American Balladry From British Broadside I included other texts that might be associated with Laws N37 Line by line analysis revealed three song branches Textual and historical evidence suggested how the family evolved I am not interested in creating a new numbering or naming system for our songs I may be even more satisfied with Steve Roud's numbering and Robert Waltz's naming than they are They name the stars in my sky I am trying to draw the constellations
