Hack in a Flak Jacket Peter Stefanovic,2016-08-09 A startlingly honest account of experiencing war and terrorism from the frontline by Peter Stefanovic one of Australia s leading journalists and foreign correspondents Flak jackets are dreadful things Sure they have a purpose and if one ever stopped a bullet or piece of shrapnel from spearing into my vital organs I would kiss it hang it up and frame it But that hasn t happened yet For almost ten years Peter Stefanovic was Channel Nine s foreign correspondent in Europe the US Africa and the Middle East During that time he witnessed more than his fair share of death and destruction and carried the burden of those images all while putting his own personal safety very much in the firing line From flak jackets to tuxedos From the funerals of world leaders and icons to war zones and natural disasters This is a thrilling account of a life lived on camera delivering the news wherever it happens whatever the risk

Open-file Report , Performance-Based Seismic Engineering: Vision for an Earthquake Resilient Society Matej Fischinger,2014-07-15 The Bled workshops have traditionally produced reference documents providing visions for the future development of earthquake engineering as foreseen by leading researchers in the field The participants of the 2011 workshop built on the tradition of these events initiated by Professors Fajfar and Krawinkler to honor their important research contributions and have now produced a book providing answers to crucial questions in today s earthquake engineering What visible changes in the design practice have been brought about by performance based seismic engineering What are the critical needs for future advances What actions should be taken to respond to those needs The key answer is that research interests should go beyond the narrow technical aspects and that the seismic resilience of society as a whole should become an essential part of the planning and design process The book aims to provide essential guidelines for researchers professionals and students in the field of earthquake engineering It will also be of particular interest for all those working at insurance companies governmental civil protection and emergency management agencies that are responsible for assessing and planning community resilience The introductory chapter of the book is based on the keynote presentation given at the workshop by the late Professor Helmut Krawinkler As such the book includes Helmut s last and priceless address to the engineering community together with his vision and advice for the future development of performance based design earthquake engineering and seismic risk management

From Preparation to Faulting: Multidisciplinary Investigations on Earthquake Processes, volume II Fuqiong Huang, Galina Kopylova, Jie Liu, Paresh Nath Singha Roy, Giovanni Martinelli, Mohammad Mokhtari, 2024-10-18 This Research Topic is Volume II of a series The previous volume can be found here From Preparation to Faulting Multidisciplinary Investigations on Earthquake Processes What happens before an earthquake occurs What are the physical processes that take place in the Earth s crust before the earthquake nucleates How can we observe describe and model them statistically numerically and physically in multiscales from samples in laboratory to tectonic plate of earth During the last few decades many efforts have been devoted to multidisciplinary studies in an attempt to answer these fundamental questions Previously the Institute of Physics of the Earth IPE model dry and Dilatancy Diffusion DD model wet were proposed for earthquake processes Like Schrödinger s cat earthquakes are unpredictable according to the IPE model yet they can be predictable according to DD model Recently with advanced techniques some scientists have declaimed that there are precursors to be used for earthquake forecasting which offers new opportunities to study earthquake precursors
