Battered Lawyers:

Battered Women and Feminist Lawmaking Elizabeth M. Schneider, 2008-10-01 Women's rights advocates in the United States have long argued that violence against women denies women equality and citizenship but it took a movement of feminist activists and lawyers beginning in the late 1960s to set about realizing this vision and transforming domestic violence from a private problem into a public harm This important book examines the pathbreaking legal process that has brought the pervasiveness and severity of domestic violence to public attention and has led the United States Congress the Supreme Court and the United Nations to address the problem Elizabeth Schneider has played a pioneering role in this process From an insider's perspective she explores how claims of rights for battered women have emerged from feminist activism and she assesses the possibilities and limitations of feminist legal advocacy to improve battered women's lives and transform law and culture The book chronicles the struggle to incorporate feminist arguments into law particularly in cases of battered women who kill their assailants and battered women who are mothers With a broad perspective on feminist lawmaking as a vehicle of social change Schneider examines subjects as wide ranging as criminal prosecution of batterers the civil rights remedy of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 the O J Simpson trials and a class on battered women and the law that she taught at Harvard Law School Defending Battered Women on Trial Elizabeth A. Sheehy, 2013-12-15 In the landmark Lavallee decision of 1990 the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that evidence of battered woman syndrome was admissible in establishing self defence for women accused of killing their abusive partners This book looks at the legal response to battered women who killed their partners in the fifteen years since Lavallee Elizabeth Sheehy uses trial transcripts and a case study approach to tell the stories of eleven women ten of whom killed their partners She looks at the barriers women face to just leaving the various ways in which self defence was argued in these cases and which form of expert testimony was used to frame women's experience of battering Drawing upon a rich expanse of research from many disciplines she highlights the limitations of the law of self defence and the costs to women undergoing a murder trial In a final chapter she proposes numerous reforms In Canada a woman is killed every six days by her male partner and about twelve women per year kill their male partners By illuminating the cases of eleven women this book highlights the barriers to leaving violent men and the practical and legal dilemmas that face battered women on trial for murder Child Abuse and Neglect Litigation Howard A. Davidson, United States. Children's Bureau, National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect (U.S.), National Center for State Courts, National Legal Resource Center for Child Advocacy and Protection (U.S.), 1981 Civil Rights Issues Facing Asian Americans in the 1990s United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1992 A report of the United States Commission on Civil Rights The Journal of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, 1994 Battered Women and the Law Clare Dalton, Elizabeth M.

Schneider,2001 This book takes as its operating premise that violence against women is prevalent throughout the world that intimate violence is an important aspect of the broader problem of violence against women and that the legal system has a crucial part to play in combating all forms of violence against women Colorado Lawyer ,2004 Women Who Kill, Criminal Law and Domestic Abuse Rachel M. McPherson,2023-10-16 This book presents an informed coherent and stimulating analysis of UK legal defences of homicide by victims of domestic abuse Women killing following domestic abuse from a male partner is a significant category of homicide In some areas of the UK it represents the most common context in which women kill Yet despite its significance it is an aspect of homicide that remains under researched within a UK context Much of what is known about cases of this type comes from other jurisdictions This book brings together a coherent understanding of the UK landscape in this area It builds upon existing literature particularly from the US which has examined this issue from a practical perspective using the lived experiences of practitioners involved in cases of this type The collection combines the experiences of those in practice with academic expertise pointing to potential sites of injustice that exist in this context and offering suggestions for reform The volume will be a valuable guide for those involved in cases of this nature whilst also offering insight to those academics with an interest in homicide and legal responses to domestic abuse The book will also be of interest to those working in the area of comparative criminal justice ABA/BNA Lawyers' Manual on Professional Conduct ,1984 CAMDEN Due to budgetary constraints the print version of this title has been cancelled Please consult a reference librarian for more information The Colonial Lawyer ,1991 The Hennepin Lawyer ,1991 California Lawyer ,1998 Battered But Not Beaten-- Linda MacLeod,Canadian Advisory Council on the Status of Women,1987 Defending Battered Women in Criminal Cases ,1993 Harvard Women's Law Journal ,2002 Constructive Divorce Penelope Eileen Bryan,2005 Annotation Offers a compelling argument that the procedures used to settle divorce disputes yield unjust decisions and poor outcomes for millions of adults and children each year Backed by thorough research the author discusses the benefits of improving procedural justice in divorce cases Child Abuse Joanne Valiant Cook,Roy Tyler Bowles,1980 Bullied by two mean girls in her sixth grade class a lonely plump girl gains self confidence and makes new friends after a mysterious fox gently bites her Criminology & Penology Abstracts ,1984 The Lawyer ,2003 Student Lawyer ,2002
