Battle For Berlin:

Race for the Reichstag Tony Le Tissier,2010-04-30 The acclaimed historian's classic account of the Battle for Berlin offers unprecedented detail and insight into the final days of WWII in Europe This authoritative study dispels the myths created by Soviet propaganda and describes the Red Army's final offensive against Nazi Germany in graphic detail For the Soviets Berlin and the Reichstag in particular was seen as the ultimate prize Stalin had initially promised Berlin to Marshal Zhukov But after Zhukov blundered a preliminary battle Stalin allowed Marshal Koniev Zhukov's rival to launch one of his powerful tank armies at the city The advancing Soviet forces were confronted by a desperate inadequate German defense General Weidling's panzer corps was dragged into the city in a futile attempt to prolong the existence of the Third Reich whose leaders squabbled and schemed in their underground shelters Ten days later after the suicides of Hitler and Goebbels the survivors had to choose between breakout and surrender Drawing on a wide range of Soviet sources and unprecedented access to German archival and memoir materials Race for the Reichstag brings into startling focus the bitter fight for the last patch of soil under Wehrmacht control

The Battle of Berlin 1945 Tony Le Tissier,2008-12-08 Tony Le Tissier is arguably the finest English language historian of the Battle of Berlin defenceWeb The Battle of Berlin was a battle on an unprecedented scale The Soviets massed 1.6 million troops for Operation Berlin and Marshal Zhukov in the centre had half of them but his initial attack floundered lasting four days instead of one It was so costly that he had to revise his plans for taking the city and to revise them yet again when Stalin allowed his rival Marshal Koniev to intervene The battle thus became a contest for the prize of the Reichstag Meanwhile Hitler and his courtiers sought to continue the struggle in the totally unrealistic atmosphere that prevailed in his bunker while soldiers and civilians alike suffered and perished unheeded all around them In The Battle of Berlin 1945 Tony Le Tissier brings us the definitive history of the last great battle of the Second World War a fight to the death in the smouldering ruins of the capital of Hitler's Third Reich historians Its importance in toppling Hitler cannot be denied despite the fact that some thought its strategic value unnecessary to the war itself The capture of the city and the red Soviet banner hanging victorious over the Reichstag is one of history s most famous an ominous images In the weeks it took for the Battle of Berlin to be fought an American president passed away a British Prime Minister had to make concessions he did not desire a Russian leader fought his way into Western Europe to stay and a German one took his own life The battle s implications would be felt for the next 50 years In April 1945 the Allies were within sight of the German capital of Berlin but Hitler refused to acknowledge the collapsed state of the German military effort even at this desperate stage and he confined himself to his Berlin bunker where he met for prolonged periods only with those that professed eternal loyalty even to the point of death In his last weeks Hitler continued to blame the incompetence of military officers for Germany s apparent failings and he even blamed the German people themselves for a lack of spirit and strength As their leader dwelled in a state of self pity without remorse or mercy but near suicide the people of Berlin were simply left to await their fate as Russians advanced from the east and the other Allies advanced from the west Most Berliners had given up hope of a win and few cared for anything but relief from their circumstances but Berliners did have a deep fear of which of the victor nations would arrive in Berlin first The Soviets closing in from hard fought battles in the east had lost millions of men in the war already and with an invasion force 2 5 million strong they longed for revenge and a chance to right the wrongs of not only this war but the last Even for Berliners too exhausted to be saddened by a German loss liberation by the Soviets was unthinkable At the same time though most believed it would not happen the Americans and British suddenly appeared to shift priorities regarding the need to take the actual capital city Since it was no longer a military objective according to Eisenhower it would be left for the Soviet armies to arrive in Berlin first bringing to fruition many Germans worst fears The battle would technically begin on April 16 1945 and though it ended in a matter of weeks it produced some of the war s most climactic events and had profound implications on the immediate future In the wake of the war the European continent was devastated leaving the Soviet Union and the United States as uncontested superpowers and ushering in nearly half a century of Cold War

Battle of Berlin - World War II

Hourly History,2018-12-25 Battle of Berlin World War II The Battle of Berlin was a monumental battle between two adversaries who despised one another For the Russians who had endured the horrific suffering and loss of lives in defending their nation against the Nazi invasion the opportunity for vengeance seemed as if fate was on their side For the German civilians who remained in Berlin the approach of the Red Army invoked terror The Germans hoped that the Americans would reach them first they would have preferred to surrender to the Americans But the Russians were advancing swiftly from the east and by April of 1945 the Battle of Berlin was underway Inside you will read about From Stalingrad to Berlin The Battle of the Oder Neisse The Russians Enter Berlin The Last Days of Adolf Hitler The Rape of Berlin And much more Hitler died by his own hand on April 30 and the Third Reich was crumbling The loss of life on both sides was catastrophic but the Germans had no way of replacing the defenders of the city and on May 2 Berlin surrendered to the Soviet forces intent on retaliation. The Russians attempted to provide services and food to the starving Germans but not all of the Russian soldiers were inspired by compassion or altruism. Looting and rape replaced law in the city and more than 100 000 women of Berlin were raped by Allied soldiers. By the time the Americans and British arrived the scars of the Russian occupation were seared upon the memories of the German people. The country and its capital would be divided and the Soviet presence would remain in the country for decades a bitter reminder that Adolf Hitler's grand promises of glory had brought Germany to defeat. World War II came to an end in 1945 but for the Germans their nation became a sacrifice to the Cold War which took its place.

Great Battles of World War Two - Battle of Berlin, 2018-09-15 The Battle of Berlin designated the Berlin Strategic Offensive Operation by the Soviet Union and also known as the Fall of Berlin was the final major offensive of the European theatre of World War II. Following the Vistula Oder Offensive of January-February 1945 the Red Army had temporarily halted on a line 60 km (37 mi) east of Berlin. On 9 March Germany established its defence plan for the city with Operation Clausewitz. The first defensive preparations at the outskirts of Berlin were made on 20 March under the newly appointed commander of Army Group Vistula General Gotthard Heinrici. When the Soviet offensive resumed on 16 April two Soviet fronts army groups attacked Berlin from the east and south while a third overran German forces positioned north of Berlin. Before the main battle in Berlin commenced the Red Army encircled the city after successful battles of the Seelow Heights and Halbe. On 20 April 1945 Hitler's birthday the 1st Belorussian Front led by Marshal Georgy Zhukov advancing from the east and north started shelling Berlin's city centre while Marshal Ivan Konev's 1st Ukrainian Front broke through Army Group Centre and advanced towards the southern suburbs of Berlin. On 23 April General Helmuth Weidling assumed command of the forces within Berlin. The garrison consisted of several depleted and disorganised Wehrmacht and Waffen SS divisions along with poorly trained Volkssturm and Hitler Youth members. Over the course of the next week the Red Army gradually took the entire city. Before the battle was over Hitler and several of his followers killed themselves. The city's garrison surrendered on 2 May but fighting continued to the north west west and south west of the city until the end of the war in Europe on 8 May 9 May in the Soviet Union as some German units fought westward so that they could surrender to the Western Allies rather than to the Soviets. The Last Battle Cornelius Ryan, 2010-02-16 The classic account of the final offensive against Hitler's Third Reich. The Battle for Berlin was the culminating struggle of World War II in the European theater the last offensive against Hitler's Third Reich which devastated one of Europe's historic capitals and marked the final defeat of Nazi Germany.
