Battle Of Poltava:

The Battle That Shook Europe Peter Englund, 2003-03-19 And in the wealth of detail in this immensely readable book lies the greater history of the 17th and 18th centuries Jacket The Battle of Poltava 1709 Alekseevich Moltusov Valery, 2018-12-19 Based on Swedish Russian and Ukrainian source this book presents a modern look at the pivotal battle of the Great Northern War The uniqueness of the book is that it reveals the consistency and logic of the Russian army's actions The book also provides a detailed historiography of the Battle of Poltava The author reveals the secrets of military engineering art Russian and Swedish armies For the first time new evidence for the location and configuration of the fortification system on the battlefield is given as well as new information on the actions of Russian artillery in battle is given In addition there is much information on the strength and composition of Russian troops at different stages of the battle as well as an examination of the participation in the battle of irregular military formations on both sides The author's conclusions complement our understanding of the battle Highly illustrated including specially commissioned color artwork and maps this is a major new account of one of the 18th century's most important battles Poltava 1709 Angus Konstam, 1994-10-17 Osprey's examination of the Battle of Poltava 1709 which marked the demise of Sweden as a European great power and the rise of Russia In 1707 the seemingly invincible Charles XII led his army deep into Russia It was to prove his undoing the long march eroded the fighting strength of the invaders a vital supply convoy was lost and the winter of 1708-9 was the worst in living memory Drawing upon primary source material previously unseen in the west Angus Konstam recounts the events looking in particular at how this battle led to the destruction of the Swedish Army The Battle of Poltava Graham J Morris, 2023-10-26 The Swedish Empire although not comparable with the huge areas and populations that we today associate with such empires as Rome the Mongols or the Russian and British was a formidable force to be reckoned with during the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries Her rise to the imperium can be traced back to the middle of the sixteenth century when along with Russia Poland and Denmark Sweden also took advantage of the vacuum in the Baltic created after the collapse of the Teutonic Knights The power struggle that resulted netted Sweden Livonia from Poland West Pomerania and some of East Pomerania Bremen Verden and Wismar She acquired Halland Jämtland Härjedalen and the Gotland and Sel islands from Denmark together with Skåne Bohuslän and Blekinge while Russia ceded Ingria and Lexholm which effectively cut her off from the Baltic Sea The Battle of Poltava 8 July 1709 was the decisive and largest battle of the Great Northern War A Russian army under the command of Tsar Peter I defeated a Swedish army under the command of Carl Gustaf Rehnskiöld The battle put an end to the status of the Swedish Empire as a European great power as well as its eastbound expansion and marked the beginning of Russian hegemony in Northern Europe The Battle of Poltava Peter Englund, 1992 Dawn of the Tsarist Empire Nicholas A.
