Battlefront Namibia:

Battlefront Namibia John Ya-Otto, Ole Gjerstad, Michael Mercer, 1981 John Ya Otto was SWAPO Secretary for Labour and after independence became Ambassador to Angola This book is a personal account of his life and struggle against South African occupation and oppression of the Namibian people The autobiography is based on a mass of taped conversations in 1975-76 and demonstrates clearly why so many Namibians have been drawn into the liberation struggle The book contains several chapters of historical interest such as the first hand account of the Windhoek massacre in 1959 which led many Namibians into nationalist politics Ya Otto's life story also exposes the brutality of the South African regime in suppressing SWAPO and its supporters Trained as a teacher Ya Otto was arrested and tortured on several occasions and was eventually persuaded to leave Namibia to continue his work for SWAPO in exile The book was translated into Dutch and German Erikson Moorsom 1989 updated with Swapo's Struggle for Namibia, 1960-1991 Lauren Dobell, 1998 Action on Namibia, 1989 Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1983 West Germany and Namibia's Path to Independence, 1969-1990 Thorsten Kern, 2019-06-05 Namibia's main liberation movement the South West Africa People's Organisation SWAPO relied heavily on outside support for its armed struggle against South Africa's occupation of what it called South West Africa While East Germany's solidarity with Namibia's struggle for national self-determination has received attention little research has been done on West Germany's policy towards Namibia which must be seen in the light of inter-German rivalry The impact of the wider realities of the Cold War on Namibia's rocky path to independence leaves ample room for research and new interpretations In this study Thorsten Kern shows that German division played a vital role in West Germany's position towards Namibia during the Cold War The two states' deeply diverging policies characterised in this context by competition for influence over SWAPO were strongly affected by the Cold War rivalry between the capitalist West and the communist East Yet ultimately the dynamics of rapprochement helped to bring about Namibia's independence This book is based upon a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Cape Town in 2016 Kern conducted research in the National Archives of Namibia and in German archives and his work draws on interviews with contemporary witnesses The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale, 2014-10-21 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process A Symbol of a People's Determination. The Windhoek Old Location Henning Melber, 2025-10-01 The story of Windhoek's Old Location is one of African replacement and at the same time of creating home against all odds under the enforced restricted living conditions of Apartheid Being adjacent to the White centre of town urban planning replaced the Old Location with the newly established township Katutura in the late 1950s Many residents refused to be re located Escalating protest resulted in deadly clashes on 10th December 1959 when the colonial police opened fire on unarmed residents At least 13 were killed and more than 40 recorded as wounded After years of forced removal the Old Location was officially closed in 1968 This book contributes to a commemorative culture of a crucial place and space during a formative time in Namibia s history It offers a partial reconstruction of a social history of the Old Location Personal memories of former residents as far as they are accessible contrast the colonial archives The captivating photographs by the German photographer Dieter Hinrichs who documented social events and everyday life in the Location between 1959 and 1960 are essential Many are published here for the first time They speak louder than words The Labor Movement and the Prospects for Democracy in Namibia Gretchen Merry Bauer,1994 Official Records ,1988 Transitions in Namibia Henning Melber,2007 This volume completes the research project on Liberation and Democracy in Southern Africa LiDeSA It mainly addresses socio economic and gender related issues in contemporary Namibia Most of the contributors are either Namibian based in Namibia or have undertaken extensive research in the country Their interest as scholars and or civil society activists is guided by a loyalty characterised not by rhetoric but by empathy with the people They advocate notions of human rights social equality and related values and norms instead of being driven by an ideologically determined party political affiliation Their investigative and analytical endeavours depict a society in transition a society that is far from being liberated Not surprisingly this compilation explores the limits to liberation more than its advances Namibian Women's Movement, 1980 to 1992 Heike Becker,1995 SA Literature ,1982 Namibia Bryan O'Linn,2003 The Lost May Day Pekka Peltola,1995 Strangers in Their Own Country William Bigelow,1985 Arranged as a series of lessons on all sorts of aspects of South Africa Facts Films Homelands Pass laws Story writing Unions Resistance U S Corporations Letters African Studies Review ,1991 Ongulumbashe Paul Els,2007 Root and Branch Allan H. Findlay,1986

Southern African Literatures Michael J. F. Chapman,2003 Southern African Literatures is a major study of the work of writers from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Malawi Angola Mozambique and Namibia written at a time of crucial change in the subcontinent It covers a wide range of work from the storytelling of stone age Bushmen to modern writing by renowned figures such as Es kia Mphahlele Nadine Gordimer and Andr c Brink encompassing traditional popular and elite writing literature in translation and case studies based on topical issues Michael Chapman argues that literary history in the southern African region is best based on a comparative method which while respecting differences of language race and social circumstance seeks cultural interchange including translations of experience across linguistic and ethnic borders Instead of perpetuating division the study examines points of common reference as it asks what makes a literary culture Who are to be regarded as major and minor authors What are the strengths and limitations of local and international perspectives Should literature in today s southern Africa be confined to the art forms of poems plays and fiction The author seeks to answer these questions vital to all literary discussion in the volatile context of recent southern African history in a style accessible to the general reader The study is republished with a revised Preface in which the author considers the sometimes heated debates that accompanied the book s initial appearance Southern African Literatures in 2000 was awarded the premier Bill Venter Prize for academic literature in South Africa International African Bibliography ,1985
