Brickyard Summer:

Rock County, Wisconsin William Fiske Brown, 1908 Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Making the Match Teri S. Lesesne, 2003 Explains how teachers and librarians can steer students to the literature they love by focusing on three key areas knowing the readers knowing the books and knowing the strategies to motivate students to read The House of the Dead Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 1915 Circumstance Earla Burke, 2020-11-24 This memoir is the journey of a girl who found the public library and the Baptist Church in the railway town in Northern Ontario at the age of eight The library books gave her the knowledge she needed and Jesus gave her the strength to endure the journey Her father who believed in spare the rod and spoil the child taught her how to work Her mother softened the hard lessons she had to learn Independent at age fourteen after repeating grade nine three times she travelled to Toronto and began a new life where she met new friends and challenges Her first home was a bed in a hostel at the YWCA where she lived until she moved in with a family of 14 the following year Her father died when she was 18 and the events that followed gave her the determination and endurance to succeed Her first job in Toronto was as a file clerk Through night school and hard work she progressed through corporations to college professor to president of a financial planning company Her ultimate dream was to be a writer and this is her story
