Prepared Fall 2002 by J. Hagemann and L. Danley
Revised 7/08

If you are like most DeVry Addison students, you'll take Professional Writing (English 227) in your 5th or 6th term. But you may be asked to write in the business context long before that. This brief guide is intended to get you through those assignments.

In this document, we can only introduce you to some of the fundamental concepts of professional writing—concepts you'll work on in more depth in your courses. - persuade—build goodwill with or enlist the help of—their audience.

They typically communicate through the following formats:

- Forms (e.g., time cards, billing invoices, inventory tracking forms, etc.)
- E-mail messages and memos (typically to an audience inside the business)
- Letters (typically to an audience outside the business)
- Reports
- Proposals
