Doris Betts

Doris Betts:

Heading West Doris Betts, 1995-07 The author of Souls Raised from the Dead offers a gripping novel that combines the suspense of a thriller with the exhilarating story of a woman's bumpy journey toward liberation. A small town librarian with big dreams is resigned to a dull vacation with her sister and brother-in-law until a thief accosts the group and kidnaps her.

The Astronomer, and Other Stories Doris Betts, 1965 All but one of these seven stories and one novella take place in small towns in North Carolina and all of them concern ordinary people teetering upon the knowledge of their own insignificance. First published in 1965, this second collection of short fiction by Doris Betts evinces her breathtaking mastery of the genre. Doris Betts Elizabeth Evans, 1997 Twayne's United States Authors, English Authors and World Authors Series present concise critical introductions to great writers and their works. Devoted to critical interpretation and discussion of an author's work, each study takes account of major literary trends and important scholarly contributions and provides new critical insights with an original point of view. An Authors Series volume addresses readers ranging from advanced high school students to university professors. The book suggests to the informed reader new ways of considering a writer's work. Each volume features a critical interpretive study and explication of the author's works, a brief biography of the author, an accessible chronology outlining the life, the work, and relevant historical context, aids for further study, complete notes and references, a selected annotated bibliography, and an index. A readable style presented in a manageable length. Beasts of the Southern Wild and Other Stories Doris Betts, 1973 From the author of Souls Raised from the Dead and winner of the Southern Book Critics Circle Award comes a collection of stories that showcases Betts at the top of her form: compassionate, witty, and unforgettable. The North Carolina Literary Hall of Fame Proudly Presents Doris Betts (1932-), Author, Teacher & Mentor, Statesville North Carolina Literary Hall of Fame, 2004

Souls Raised from the Dead Doris Betts, 1994 Doris Betts returns to the forefront of American fiction with a novel of extraordinary power and poignancy. In a setting that recalls the small towns created by Faulkner, O'Connor, Eudora Welty, and other great Southern writers, Betts etches an indelible portrait of a family. The Sharp Teeth of Love Doris Betts, 1998 In a novel of stunning originality, Betts introduces a touch of the supernatural to a tale set in an all-too-real world. Fearing that her own impending nuptials promise to mirror those of her parents, Luna Stone runs from the altar and takes refuge at an isolated camp near Donner Pass.

The Scarlet Thread Doris Betts, 2013-04 The Scarlet Thread by Doris Betts was first published by Harper Row in 1964 and won the Sir Walter Raleigh Award for Fiction. Elizabeth Ellen Fussell, 1994 Gentle Insurrection D. BETTS, 1955 Southern Strategies Michael Odom, 2024-03-07 A study of how literary strategies illuminate the evangelical foundation of Southern culture. In Southern Strategies: Narrative Negotiation in an Evangelical Region, Michael Odom argues that through the narrative strategies of resistance, satire, and negotiation a multigenerational group of twentieth century white Southern writers provides unique insight into the central role evangelical religion has played in shaping the sociopolitical culture of the American South Odom investigates how W J Cash and Lillian Smith confront both the racist culture of their time and the religious institutions that enabled white supremacy to flourish insider outsider Catholic writers Flannery O Connor and Walker Percy satirize American consumption and the antithetical imperative of evangelical Christianity subsumed within the same culture and Doris Betts and Dennis Covington engage evangelical religion with curiosity and compassion redefining spirituality with the aim of providing a sense of community vision and selfhood Southern Strategies concludes with an analysis of contemporary responses to the evangelical activism that animates the base of American conservatism today

Vale of Humility George Hovis,2007 This is an inviting look at the influence of the yeoman s small farm on six modern southern writers In a deft analysis of works by Doris Betts Reynolds Price Fred Chappell Lee Smith Clyde Edgerton and Randall Kenan Vale of Humility explores the lives of the plain folk white and black who populate the worlds of contemporary North Carolina fiction Hovis explains that a wealthy planter elite was significantly less prominent in North Carolina than in neighboring regions and as such the state s plain folk did not develop a class identity based as deeply in relation to a superior planter class Instead the identification of the yeoman s small farm rather than the plantation as necessary to the ideal life has been a distinguishing feature of the state s literature In this first full length study of North Carolina s contemporary fiction Hovis examines the work of six representative writers from the state s three geographic regions Lee Smith and Fred Chappell from the mountains Doris Betts and Clyde Edgerton from the Piedmont and Reynolds Price and Randall Kenan from the coastal plain The work of these six writers is explored within the broader southern literary tradition with attention to how they have revised such modes as pastoral family saga and southwestern humor in order to portray their own regional experiences Although these writers celebrate the egalitarianism at the heart of the yeoman ideal they also expose the forms of racism sexism and classism that have also marked the state s history

The Intellectual in Twentieth-Century Southern Literature Tara Powell,2012-01-09

Never in its long history has the South provided an entirely comfortable home for the intellectual In this thought provoking contribution to the field of southern studies Tara Powell considers the evolving ways that major post World War II southern writers have portrayed intellectuals from Flannery O Connor s ironic view of interlockchuls to Gail Godwin s southerners striving to feel at home in the academic world Although Walker Percy like his fellow Catholic writer O Connor explicitly rejected the intellectual label for himself he nonetheless introduced the modern novel of ideas to southern letters Powell shows by placing sympathetic non caricatured intellectuals at the center of his influential works North Carolinians Doris Betts and her student Tim McLaurin made their living teaching literature and creative writing in academia and Betts s fiction often includes dislocated academics while McLaurin s superb memoirs often funny frequently point up the limitations of the mind as opposed to the heart and the spirit Examining works by Ernest Gaines Alice Walker and Randall Kenan Powell traces the evolution of the black American literacy narrative from a stress on the post Emancipation conviction which saw formal education as an essential means of resisting oppression to the growing suspicion in the post civil rights era of literacy acts that may estrange educated blacks from the larger black community Powell concludes with Godwin who embraces university life in her fiction as she explores what it means to be a southern female intellectual in the modern world a world in which all those markers inscribe isolation
