American and British Poetry Harriet Semmes Alexander,1984

A Longing Like Despair Alan Grob,2002 A major aim of Grob s study is to show Arnold as poet to be possessed of far greater philosophic depth and subtlety than his critics have usually credited him with by identifying the deep affinities and shared weltanschauung of his poetic vision with the metaphysical pessimism of Schopenhauer the major European philosopher whose insistence on the cosmic opposition between the world as will and the world as idea provided the most important philosophic alternative in the nineteenth century to the age s otherwise dominant progressive historicism more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs American Higher Education Transformed, 1940-2005 Wilson Smith, Thomas Bender, 2008-04-11 This long awaited sequel to Richard Hofstadter and Wilson Smith's classic anthology American Higher Education: A Documentary History presents one hundred and seventy two key edited documents that record the transformation of higher education over the past sixty years. The volume includes such seminal documents as Vannevar Bush's 1945 report to President Franklin D. Roosevelt Science: The Endless Frontier, the U.S. Supreme Court decisions in Brown v. Board of Education and Sweezy v. New Hampshire and Adrienne Rich's challenging essay Taking Women Students Seriously. The wide variety of readings underscores responses of higher education to a memorable, often tumultuous half century. Colleges and universities faced a transformation of their educational goals, institutional structures and curricula and admission policies, the ethnic and economic composition of student bodies, an expanding social and gender membership in the professoriate, their growing allegiance to and dependence on federal and foundation financial aids and even the definitions and defenses of academic freedom. Wilson Smith and Thomas Bender have assembled an essential reference for policymakers, administrators and all those interested in the history and sociology of higher education.
