The Dragon's Flower: Orange Bliss Choco Lily, News travels quickly thanks to spies planted around here and there Soon the Empress comes to know that her son was in love with his personal maid As a mother she would never agree with their relationship Their first meeting was done without the Third Prince s knowledge It ended with the Empress fainting but Xiao Hua was exempted from punishment with the Third Prince interfering But after the Third Prince went to the border to guard against the attack from another country the Empress made an even bigger move against Xiao Hua However before the verdict decided on who was the victor this round someone had tried to poison Xiao Hua and pin the blame on the Empress

Practicing Scripture Barend ter Haar,2014-11-30 Practicing Scripture is an original and detailed history of one of the most successful religious movements of late imperial China the Non Action

Teachings or Wuweijiao from its beginnings in the late sixteenth century in the prefectures of southern Zhejiang to the middle of the twentieth century when communist repression dealt it a crippling blow Uncovering important data on its beliefs and practices Barend ter Haar paints a wholly new picture of the group which despite its Daoist sounding name was a deeply devout lay Buddhist movement whose adherents rejected the worship of statues and ancestors while venerating the writings of Patriarch Luo fl early sixteenth century a soldier turned lay Buddhist The texts written in vernacular Chinese and known as the Five Books in Six Volumes mix personal experiences religious views and a wealth of quotations from the Buddhist canon Ter Haar convincingly demonstrates that the Non Action Teachings was not messianic or millenarian in orientation and had nothing to do with other new religious groups and networks traditionally labelled as White Lotus Teachings It combined Chan and Pure Land practices with a strong self identity and vegetarianism and actively insisted on the right of free practice Members of the movement created a foundation myth in which Ming 1368 1644 emperor Zhengde bestowed the right upon their mythical forefather In addition they produced an imperial proclamation whereby Emperor Kangxi of the Qing 1645 1911 granted the group similar privileges Thanks to its expert handling of a great number and variety of extant sources Practicing Scripture depicts one of the few lay movements in traditional China that can be understood in some depth both in terms of its religious content and history and its social environment The work will be welcomed by China specialists in religious and Buddhist studies and social history
