German Monuments in the Americas Hans A. Pohlsander, 2010 This book looks at the many transatlantic bonds which have linked and still link Germany and the United States German immigrants to the Americas brought with them a good deal of cultural baggage They cultivated their German heritage in their schools churches and clubs They expressed pride in this heritage by erecting monuments to Goethe or Schiller Beethoven or Wagner Alexander von Humboldt or Turnvater Jahn They claimed Friedrich Wilhelm von Steuben Carl Schurz Gustave Koerner and John A Roebing as their own But German born or German trained sculptors did not limit themselves to German subjects They also paid tribute to America by creating sculptures of Benjamin Franklin George Washington Thomas Jefferson Abraham Lincoln and others who occupy a place of honor in American history While a few German monuments can be found in Canada and in Latin America the number of German monuments in the United States is surprisingly large These monuments illustrate the contribution often overlooked or ignored of the German American community to American society and American cultural life

Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South Deborah C. Pollack, 2015-01-18 Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South recounts the enormous influence of artists in the evolution of six southern cities Atlanta Charleston New Orleans Louisville Austin and Miami from 1865 to 1950 In the decades following the Civil War painters sculptors photographers and illustrators in these municipalities employed their talents to articulate concepts of the New South aestheticism and Gilded Age opulence and to construct a visual culture far beyond providing pretty pictures in public buildings and statues in city squares As Deborah C Pollack investigates New South proponents such as Henry W Grady of Atlanta and other regional leaders she identifies cultural strivers philanthropists women's organizations entrepreneurs writers architects politicians and dreamers who united with visual artists to champion the arts both as a means of cultural preservation and as mechanisms of civic progress Aestheticism made popular by Oscar Wilde's southern tours during the Gilded Age was another driving force in art creation and urban improvement Specific art works occasionally precipitated controversy and incited public anger yet for the most part artists of all kinds were recognized as providing inspirational incentives for self improvement civic enhancement and tourism art appreciation and personal fulfillment through the love of beauty Each of the six New South cities entered the late nineteenth century with fractured artistic heritages Charleston and Atlanta had to recover from wartime devastation The infrastructures of New Orleans and Louisville were barely damaged by war but their social underpinnings were shattered by the end of slavery and postwar economic depression Austin was not vitalized until after the Civil War and Miami was a post Civil War creation Pollack surveys these New South cities with an eye to understanding how each locale shaped its artistic and aesthetic self perception across a spectrum of economic political gender and race issues She also discusses Lost Cause imagery present in all the studied municipalities While many art history volumes concerning the South focus on sultry landscapes outside the urban grid Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South explores the art belonging to its cities whether exhibited in its museums expositions and galleries or reflective of its parks plazas marketplaces industrial areas gardens and universities It also identifies and celebrates the creative urban humanity who helped build the cultural and social framework for the modern southern city
