When lives are dominated by hunger what becomes of love When assaulted by daily acts of violence and untimely death what happens to trust Set in the lands of Northeast Brazil this is an account of the everyday experience of scarcity sickness and death that centres on the lives of the women and children of a hillside favela Bringing her readers to the impoverished slopes above the modern plantation town of Bom Jesus de Mata where she has worked on and off for 25 years Nancy Scheper Hughes follows three generations of shantytown women as they struggle to survive through hard work cunning and triage It is a story of class relations told at the most basic level of bodies emotions desires and needs Most disturbing and controversial is her finding that mother love as conventionally understood is something of a bourgeois myth a luxury for those who can reasonably expect as these women cannot that their infants will live
