Cold Comfort Confronted Guy Clutton-Brock, Molly Clutton-Brock, 1972      Cold Comfort Confronted Guy Clutton-Brock, Molly Clutton-Brock, 1972      Cold Comfort Confronted, by Guy and Molly Clutton-Brock Guy Clutton-Brock, 1972      Hidden Treasure Patricia Chater, 2012 Patricia Chater wrote this account of her life from the unique position of an English woman who became absorbed into a religious community when she joined the caring and spiritual church of St Francis in Zimbabwe in the early 1960s In a sympathetic understated and matter of fact manner she describes what it meant for the members of the community to struggle for liberation in their own land and then to face the challenges of the post independence years Her memoir is a contribution to the story of Zimbabwe showing how national events impact on one particular place and on one particular group of people      Racial Discrimination and Repression in Southern Rhodesia International Commission of Jurists (1952- ), 1976      Patrick van Rensburg Kevin Shillington, 2020-07-01 Patrick van Rensburg 1931 2017 was an anti apartheid activist and self made alternative educationist whose work received international recognition with the Right Livelihood Award in 1981 Born in KwaZulu Natal into what he described as a very ordinary South African family that believed in the virtue of racism Van Rensburg became a self styled rebel who tirelessly pursued his own vision of a brighter future for emerging societies in post colonial southern Africa His emotional and intellectual struggle against his upbringing and cultural roots led him to reject his life of white privilege in South Africa Determined to prevent the emergence of a privileged black elite in post colonial society he devoted his life to implementing an alternative egalitarian approach to education focusing on quality and functional schooling for the majority Rewarded with the internationally prestigious Right Livelihood Award for his unique contribution to education he saw this work as a necessary tool of development Exiled from South Africa in 1960 because of his involvement in the London boycott campaign that gave birth to the Anti Apartheid Movement Van Rensburg moved to Botswana then Bechuanaland There he founded cooperatives provided vocational training and was among the earliest educationists to espouse the discipline of development studies Perhaps his best known legacy is the Swaneng Hill School which he founded to provide an educational home for primary school dropouts through a curriculum that combined theory and practice and academic and manual labour He involved his pupils in building their school running it providing their own food and making their own equipment and furniture Van Rensburg was an innovative and charismatic visionary who captured the zeitgeist of the late twentieth century and whose work and vision still have resonance for debates in educational policy today      Suffering for Territory Donald S. Crockery & Glass Journal ,1918 Crockery and Glass Journal ,1918 Utopia/Dystopia Michael D. Gordin,Helen Tilley,Gyan Prakash,2010-08-23 The concepts of utopia and dystopia have received much historical attention Utopias have traditionally signified the ideal future large scale social political ethical and religious spaces that have yet to be realized Utopia Dystopia offers a fresh approach to these ideas Rather than locate utopias in grandiose programs of future totality the book treats these concepts as historically grounded categories and examines how individuals and groups throughout time have interpreted utopian visions in their daily present with an eye toward the future From colonial and postcolonial Africa to pre Marxist and Stalinist Eastern Europe from the social life of fossil fuels to dreams of nuclear power and from everyday politics in contemporary India to imagined architectures of postwar Britain this interdisciplinary collection provides new understandings of the utopian dystopian experience The essays look at such issues as imaginary utopian perspectives leading to the 1856 57 Xhosa Cattle Killing in South Africa the functioning racist utopia behind the Rhodesian independence movement the utopia of the peaceful atom and its global dissemination in the mid 1950s the possibilities for an everyday utopia in modern cities and how the Stalinist purges of the 1930s served as an extension of the utopian dystopian relationship The contributors are Dipesh Chakrabarty Igal Halfin Fredric Jameson John Krige Timothy Mitchell Aditya Nigam David Pinder Marci Shore Jennifer Wenzel and Luise White

Desmond Tutu Michael Battle,2021-03-16 The first biography of its kind about Desmond Tutu this book introduces readers to Tutu s spiritual life and examines how it shaped his commitment to restorative justice and reconciliation Desmond Tutu was a pivotal leader of the anti apartheid movement in South Africa and remains a beloved and important emblem of peace and justice around the world Even those who do not know the major events of Tutu s life receiving the Nobel Peace Prize in 1984 serving as the first black archbishop of Cape

Town and primate of Southern Africa from 1986 1996 and chairing the Truth and Reconciliation Commission from 1995 1998 recognize him as a charismatic political and religious leader who helped facilitate the liberation of oppressed peoples from the ravages of colonialism But the inner landscape of Tutu s spirituality the mystical grounding that spurred his outward accomplishments often goes unseen Rather than recount his entire life story this book explores Tutu s spiritual life and contemplative practices particularly Tutu s understanding of Ubuntu theology which emphasizes finding one s identity in community and traces the powerful role they played in subverting the theological and spiritual underpinnings of apartheid Michael Battle s personal relationship with Tutu grants readers an inside view of how Tutu s spiritual agency cast a vision that both upheld the demands of justice and created space to synthesize the stark differences of a diverse society Battle also suggests that North Americans have much to learn from Tutu s leadership model as they confront religious and political polarization in their own context
