

Comparative Politics Country Analysis Paper

Country: Ireland

Parameters

- 1) Country Analysis Paper. You will choose a country (other than the U.S.) by September 19. You will then write a 5 to 6-page paper (excluding bibliography) where you will analyze the institutional setup of this country and compare it with the United States. You will need to cover all the following topics: regime type (democracy, au-tocracy, etc.), executive system (presidentialism, parliamentarism, etc.), legislature (bicameral vs. unicameral), electoral system, and party system. Besides comparing the chosen country with the U.S., you will give your critical perspective about the advantages and disadvantages of each set of institutions in both countries. You will conclude by providing your "ideal institutional setup" if you had to choose a set of institutions for a hypothetical new country. A more detailed description of this assignment along with a grading rubric will be provided on Canvas. The paper should be 5-6 pages long, double-spaced, and use 12-point Times New Roman font. The paper should be uploaded on Canvas by 11:59pm on Thursday, November 17.
- 2) Data Analysis Paper. You will use one of the datasets used in the practical lessons in class and compare the country you chose in the first paper above with the United States. Specifically, you will generate 3 graphs or figures comparing 3 aspects of your choice (e.g., electoral system, number of parties, parties' ideological positions, etc.) between the two countries using what we have learned in class in R. Datasets will be provided to you on Canvas and you will also have access to the R code used in our class lessons. You will need to turn in a short paper (2-3 pages) including the 3 figures and description of what they show (along with a paragraph introduction and a paragraph conclusion) and the R script that you used to generate the figures. I should be able to replicate the graphs you made with the R script you turn in. A more detailed description of this assignment along with a grading rubric will be provided on Canvas. For this paper, you can choose to work in groups of up to 4 students or individually. The paper should be uploaded on Canvas by 11:59pm on December 2.

Essays on Comparative Politics David Kt, 2022-09-24 The contents for this book came into existence around January 2019 At the time I was in graduate school for political science specifically in the field of comparative politics While these essays are not appropriate for a journal publication they contain important arguments about timely topics and I believe that they are worthy of sharing However I had long forgotten about them until one day stumbling upon them and re reading them in September 2022 At that time I was no longer in the political science field Rather I switched to computer science and I am currently teaching computer science at an international high school Upon re reading them I thought that they would be of immense benefit to another beginning graduate student in comparative politics It is my sincere hope that you my reader will gain something out of this collection of essays whether that is new knowledge new vocabulary or a source of information to cite for your class papers Enjoy Political Culture, Political Science, and Identity Politics Howard J. Wiarda, 2016-04-08 Political Culture defined as the values beliefs and behavioral patterns underlying the political system has long had an uneasy relationship with political science Identity politics is the latest incarnation of this conflict Everyone agrees that culture and identity are important specifically political culture is important in understanding other countries and global regions but no one agrees how much or how precisely to measure it In this important book well known Comparativist Howard J Wiarda traces the long and controversial history of culture studies and the relations of political culture and identity politics to political science Under attack from structuralists institutionalists Marxists and dependency writers Wiarda examines and assesses the reasons for these attacks and why political culture went into decline only to have a new and transcendent renaissance and revival in the writings of Inglehart Fukuyama Putnam Huntington and many others Today political culture now updated to include identity politics stands as one of these great explanatory paradigms in political science the others being structuralism and institutionalism Rather than seeing them as diametrically exposed Howard Wiarda shows how they may be made complementary and woven together in more complex multicausal explanations This book is brief highly readable provocative and certain to stimulate discussion It will be of interest to general readers and as a text in courses in international relations comparative politics foreign policy and Third World studies
