Comparative Education Reader:

Comparative Education Reader Edward R. Beauchamp, 2003 The Comparative Education Reader brings together leading scholars to provide a collection of writings on the rapidly expanding discipline of comparative education

Introducing Comparative Education A. R. Trethewey, 2014-05-18 Introducing Comparative Education aims to familiarize newcomers with comparative education as a field of study and to provide a continuing reference as people become more actively involved with comparative studies and the problems associated with developing them in rigorous and productive ways The purposes and methods of comparative education are also discussed Comprised of eight chapters this book begins by presenting a neat simple and generally accepted definition of comparative education The reader is then introduced to the history and development of comparative education the purposes of comparative education some of the pitfalls in trying to compare education or educational systems across cultural and national boundaries and some of the alternative methods open to those who would like to develop studies in comparative education The approaches associated with Isaac Kandel Nicholas Hans and G Z F Bereday Brian Holmes Edmund King Harold Noah and Max Eckstein are considered The book concludes with a listing of resources for teaching and learning This monograph is intended for students and educators

Comparative Education Kenneth Marc Kempner, Marcela Mollis, William G. Tierney, 1998 Emphasizes a cultural perspective with readings that represent a diverse vision of theory and methodology in comparative education Engages readers in the pragmatic debate between modernist and postmodernist perspectives and between structuralist and poststructuralist models Presents a world systems analysis that explores the dependent relationships among nations in economics politics and education in the creation and exchange of knowledge From publisher Handbook on Comparative Reading Eve Malmquist, 1982 In an attempt to locate studies from various cultures and nations that would provide useful sources for university courses in comparative reading this booklet provides annotated sources of international reading studies as well as three articles on comparative reading Following an introduction the first part of the booklet begins with an article on the value of comparative reading This is followed by the bibliography which is divided into sections on 1 methodology of comparative education and comparative reading 2 studies and descriptive reports and 3 reviews and descriptions of the state of the art regarding research and or the teaching of reading The second part of the booklet contains two viewpoints on university courses in comparative reading including an example of a cross national study on primary reading HTH

Textbook of Comparative Education Sodhi T.S., 1998 The book covers the broad spectrum of Comparative Education as an emerging discipline within the framework of education in India and UK USA and China This thoroughly revised edition of the book introduces the systems patterns and problems of education while highlighting the similarities and differences in various educational systems the way these have been conceived including the solution worked out by each country to the problems in the field The book has been organized keeping in view the syllabi of different universities for B Ed M Ed M A Education and M Phil It has already been approved by a number of universities as a text and reference book It will also prove useful for teachers and educational administrators in dealing with the problems of education in their day to day work Fifty Years of Comparative Education Michele Schweisfurth,2017-10-02 This edited collection was produced to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the journal Comparative Education one of the most established and prestigious journals in the field Each chapter was written by a leading scholar of comparative and international education The collection marks a creative and critical engagement with some of the most important topics in contemporary comparative education including big data pedagogy adult education scholarly mobility and gender The theme of silences connects the papers while comparative education covers the breadth and depth of educational concerns it has its own obsessions but which themes do not receive the attention they deserve This book will be of interest to anyone interested in the theory method and practice of comparative education today or in its development over the past 50 years It will be informative to all scholars and graduate students concerned with education in its global contexts In addition to those readers who situate themselves within the field of comparative and international education it offers a unique perspective on this important area of inquiry and the activities preoccupations absences and communities within it This book was originally published as a special issue of Comparative Education The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Studies in Education Larry E. Suter,Emma Smith,Brian D. Denman,2019-05-27 Educational practices have rapidly changed in the last few decades especially in how exchanges of information and learning are delivered and processed Yet while the field of international comparative studies has grown there has not been an extensive study on the relationship between educational practices students and how practitioners are prepared and trained This handbook explores international educational practices and behaviours through new research and a review of existing research with chapters spread across six parts Part I Introduction to Research Practices in Comparative Studies of Education Part II Research Methods Part III Policy Transfer Research through International Comparisons Part IV Use of Student time in Formal and Informal Settings Part V School Practices from Early Childhood through Secondary School Part VI Conclusion Lessons from Large Scale Studies Introduction to Comparative and International Education Jennifer Marshall,2019-03-30 This book introduces major themes surrounding comparative and international education giving you a nuanced understanding of key debates and thinkers and the tools necessary to conduct comparisons using secondary sources Social economic historical and cultural factors are examined in order to investigate the varied contexts in which education takes place around the globe Fully updated throughout this second edition includes A new Key concepts feature explaining essential ideas and principles Additional case studies from non Western education systems Updated statistical data highlighting educational and demographic trends This is essential reading for students on undergraduate Education Studies degrees and for similar courses covering comparative and international education Jennifer Marshall is Senior Lecturer in Education at the University of Derby Comparative
