

The Complete and Authentic Life of Jesse James

What kind of man was Jesse James? He was a blue-eyed, husky Missourian who could shoot down a bank teller in cold blood. He could and did teach a hymn-singing class. He stole hundreds of thousands of dollars at gunpoint. He was gentle to his wife. He killed scores of men during the war and after. He played Santa Claus—red suit, whiskers and all—to his children.

He was, in his time, the "most wanted" man in America. In this definitive work, Carl W. Brehman has written an authentic, objective biography of Jesse James—and the men he rode with—that is more fascinating than fiction. He has detailed every known fact about America's legendary bandit in exciting, dramatic fashion.
