THE COMPLETE GUIDE TO MAGAZINE ARTICLE WRITING

Through specific, step-by-step instruction, this book leads you through the writing of a non-fiction manuscript. You'll learn the essential elements of clear, communicative prose, and how to weave those elements skillfully into well-crafted, salable articles.

Author John Wilson covers...

- writing leads that pull your reader in
- "billboard paragraphs" that broadcast to the reader where the article is going
- giving your article spark and power
- use of quotes
- self-editing and polishing techniques
- submitting the final product

You'll learn to think of idea-generation and querying as essential parts of the prewriting process, seeing exactly how this step lays the solid foundation for good nonfiction writing. Plus you'll find dozens of sidebars crisply delivering basic, essential information: checklists, glossaries, market-study tips, interviewing tips, proofreading marks and much more. This book gives you solid information you can put to work in your nonfiction right away.
