Comparative Methods in Law, Humanities and Social Sciences Adams, Maurice, Van Hoecke, Mark, 2021-11-19 This cutting-edge book facilitates debate amongst scholars in law, humanities, and social sciences where comparative methodology is far less well anchored in most areas compared to other research methods. Global Justice Reform Hiram E. Chodosh, 2005-01-01 Global Justice Reform critiques and rethinks two neglected subjects: the nature of comparison in the field of comparative law and the struggles of national judicial systems to meet global rule of law objectives. Hiram Chodosh offers a candid look at the surprisingly underdeveloped methodology of comparative legal studies and provides a creative conceptual framework for defining and understanding the whys, whats, and hows of comparison. Additionally, Chodosh demonstrates how theories of comparative law translate into practice using contemporary global justice reform initiatives as a case study with a particular focus on Indonesia and India. Chodosh highlights the gap between the critical role of judicial institutions and their poor performance for example, political interference, corruption, backlog, and delay, discussing why reform is so elusive and demonstrating the unavoidable and essential role of comparison in reform proposals. Throughout the book, Chodosh identifies several sources of comparative misunderstanding that impede successful reforms and identifies the many predicaments reformers face, detailing a wide variety of designs, methods, and social dilemmas. In response to these seemingly insurmountable challenges, Chodosh advances some novel conceptual strategies, first by drawing on a body of non-legal scholarship on self-regulating emergent systems and then by identifying a series of anti-dilemma strategies that draw upon insights about the nature of comparison.

Comparison Leonardo Morlino, 2018-01-15 Comparison is an essential research method in political science. This book helps students to understand comparison as a scientific instrument to grasp its necessity and its effective purpose for research. For that reason, it replies to three simple questions: why compare, what to compare, and how to compare. The introduction distinguishes itself by considering not only the comparative tradition but also by taking methodological innovations of the last two decades into account.
