Contemporary Perspectives on Rhetoric Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, Robert Trapp, 2014-04-04 The anniversary edition marks thirty years of offering an indispensable review and analysis of thinkers who have exerted a profound influence on contemporary rhetorical theory I A Richards Ernesto Grassi Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca Stephen Toulmin Richard Weaver Kenneth Burke J rgen Habermas bell hooks Jean Baudrillard and Michel Foucault The brief biographical sketches locate the theorists in time and place showing how life experiences influenced perspectives on rhetorical thought The concise explanations of complex concepts are clear engaging insightful and highly accessible serving as an excellent primer for reading the major works of these scholars The critical commentary is carefully chosen to highlight implications and to place the theories within a broader rhetorical context Each chapter ends with a complete bibliography of works by the theorists

Radical Empiricists Helen Thaventhiran, 2015-08-13 Radical Empiricists presents a new history of criticism in the first half of the twentieth century against the backdrop of the modernist crisis of meaning Our received idea of modernist criticism is that its novelty lay in being very empirical critics believed in looking closely at words on the page Such close reading has since been easy to ridicule but my book seeks to consider whether this is fair have we in the rush either to dismiss or even to defend the idea of close reading often failed to look closely at what it involves in practice Against this oversight Radical Empiricists turns close reading back on itself proposing some innovative readings of the prose of five major modernist poet critics I A Richards T S Eliot William Empson R P Blackmur and Marianne Moore The book is divided into two parts preceded by an introduction that explores what these five writers share a radical self consciousness about the key critical concept meaning Part I How to read considers the prose techniques of Eliot Richards and Empson as they push at the boundaries of verbal analysis in other disciplines experimental psychology and anthropology classical commentary and textual criticism Part II introduces Blackmur and Moore alongside Empson and takes a more polemical look at how their critical styles defy various modernist orthodoxies about how not to read for example that paraphrase always destroys poetic meaning Many of these orthodoxies remain current re visiting their history and attending to the rich detail of critical prose styles can allow us to lift some old unreflective constraints on our ways of knowing about poems

Authors and Authority Patrick Parrinder, 1991 One of the great paradoxes of modern times is that the more scientists understand the natural world the more we discover that our everyday beliefs about it are wrong Neil F Comins has identified and classified by origin and topic over 1 700 commonly held misconceptions about the universe He presents the reader with the tools needed to probe erroneous notions so that we can begin to question for ourselves and to think more like scientists

Foundations Aesthetics V 1 John Constable, 2013-09-13 This is Volume I of ten in the selected works of I A Richards 1919 to 1938 This set gathers the major writings of I A Richards between 1919 and 1938 including a large proportion of his periodical journalism together with a selection from previously unpublished manuscript articles now held in the Richards Collection of Magdalene College Cambridge The aim of this edition has been to provide modernised and corrected standard texts of these classics of twentieth century literary theory and also to make available for research less accessible books and articles
