Alvin Rides Again:

Alvin Rides Again, 1974 Brisbane's Lost City Theatres Garry G Parsons, 2015-09-24 Going to the pictures as we said back in the day was a memorable childhood adventure because it meant either going to a big city cinema with our parents or watching a double feature at the local fleapit on a Saturday afternoon The latter brings back fond memories of rolling Jaffas down the aisles Admission was only 20 cents and for 10 cents you could buy a drink and a packet of potato chips But theatres have changed as has the way movies are presented Gone are the talented projectionists who dazzled us with real presentation skills This book is a photographic depiction of how theatres used to be and how some of us think they still should be Times have changed but we will always have our silver screen memories Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies Parliamentary Debates, Senate, Weekly Hansard Australia. Parliament. Senate, 1983 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Australia. Parliament. House of Representatives, 1983 The A to Z of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2009-07-21 Whether it was Jane Campion's The Piano Mel Gibson in Mad Max Paul Hogan in Crocodile Dundee or The Lord of the Rings saga we have all experienced the cinema of Australia and New Zealand This book is an introduction and guide to the film of Australia and New Zealand With entries on many exceptional producers directors writers and actors as well as the films indicated above and many others this reference also presents the early pioneers the film companies and government bodies and much more in its hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries Through a chronology that shows how far these cinemas have come in a short time and an introduction that presents them more broadly a clear portrait of the two countries motion pictures emerge The bibliography is an excellent source for further reading Schirmer Encyclopedia of Film Barry Keith Grant, 2007 This reference source
