Creating a Learning-centered Classroom Howard E. Blake,1977 Clearly sets forth the theoretical and practical aspects of learning centered teaching and includes sample learning center models for all major curriculum areas Creating Learning Centered Classrooms Frances K. Stage,Patricia A. Muller,Jillian Kinzie,Ada Simmons,1998-05-14 This report reviews the literature on learning theories and frameworks applicable to instruction of undergraduate college students An introductory section provides an overview and discusses the importance of learning frameworks The first half of the volume addresses various theoretical frameworks in detail These include motivation theories including performance attribution and self efficacy and theories offering a social perspective such as social constructivism and conscientization Each theory is presented in terms of a case study which examines elements of the theoretical construct reviews relevant research on young adult and college student populations discusses the relationship of the framework to college students learning and identifies possible educational applications A separate section focuses on other theories which challenge assumptions about learning The second part of the monograph discusses the usefulness of these frameworks for studying and fostering academic learning One section addresses the need for more classroom based research on college student learning The final section applies the various theoretical frameworks to the classroom emphasizing the importance of diverse methods for presenting academic material activities to facilitate learning and multiple ways for students to demonstrate their learning Contains approximately 375 references DB Developing Learner-Centered Teaching Phyllis Blumberg,2012-07-12 Developing Learner Centered Teaching offers a step by step plan for transforming any course from teacher centered to the more engaging learner centered model Filled with self assessments and worksheets that are based on each of the five practices identified in Maryellen Weimer s Learner Centered Teaching this groundbreaking book gives instructors faculty developers and instructional designers a practical and effective resource for putting the learner centered model into action The Learner-Centered Classroom Jeanette Campos,2014-07-02 Learner centered instruction helps build dynamic classrooms in which the student takes ownership of the content and determines ways that it may be useful to him Such instruction also encourages the student to build the relationships that will allow learning to endure beyond the training event Here are a few of the questions author Jeannette Campos suggests asking yourself to effectively create a learner centered classroom As an instructor am I encouraging interaction among my learners whenever possible Is my content formatted in the most engaging way Have I created opportunities for the learner to reflect on the learning process Only in a learner centered classroom can you foster the four types of learning relationships learner to instructor learner to content learner to learner and learner to self This TD at Work will explain the four relationships within a classroom whether online or face to face the qualities of healthy high performing classroom relationships how different teaching methods for example podcasts peer review and asking questions can strengthen learner centered relationships the four part learning objectives to design learner centered instruction
