Choices And Chances:

Social Mobility: Chance or Choice? Sonia Blandford, 2019-09-27 Social Mobility Chance or Choice a sequel to Born to Fail Social Mobility a Working Class View October 2017 sets out the current chances and choices available for those considered by the establishment to need social mobility Revisiting mutuality Sonia Blandford asks whether we care enough as a society by considering the issues solutions and impact to the education and social issues that push against the chance or choice of social mobility Citing the views from interviews with education and business leaders Social Mobility Chance or Choice reflects on the changing skillsets and capacities of workers required by employers business and industry and the inescapable conclusion that the skillsets and capacities will continue to change in ways that are almost impossible for us to predict In these contexts we must question whether the traditional acme and recognised journey of educational achievement maximising university entrance is still relevant or useful for working class children and young people and children facing disadvantage Apprenticeships at their best can offer an updated and forward facing solution to the providing choice for working class and all children and young people Despite current policy developments to encourage meaningful apprenticeships apprenticeship programmes are experiencing challenges Social Mobility Chance or Choice argues that applied learning and work based learning should be more accessible and available to all children and young people If we are serious about unleashing the talent of all children and young people regardless of their background challenges or needs we must consider new and innovative approaches to post 14 education If we are to unleash the potential of all children and young people the role of Further Education needs to be respected and understood Quality Further Education and training in partnership with business is a credible answer to social mobility Further Education is an underused but ideally placed sector to develop meaningful change for working class young people providing real chances and choices Beginning with Leaders professionals practitioners parents or carers and members of society have a shared responsibility to ensure that all children and young people have a right to chance or choice and support these opportunities Building a society that is truly inclusive

Choice and Chance Francis E. Nipher, 1880 Seek Ye First Gail Gleaton Bell, 2020-01-22 How can we seek God's kingdom and His righteousness in today's world when all around us are temptations trials and extreme opposition toward Christian values Apathy toward the Church and a lack of commitment to spiritual things even among Christians saddens the faithful and those who diligently seek after the things of God When Jesus spoke these words in Matthew 6:33 the world was no different If it had been He would not have had to leave the glory of Heaven to dwell among us Jesus calls on mankind to seek and know Him because He knows that is where we will find peace and joy for this life and know kingdom living for eternity We will not understand the full extent of His love until we learn to seek Him first and above all else His ways are higher than our ways Isaiah 55:9 and His love for us is greater than we can imagine Daily seeking Him is one way we can draw near to our Creator and truly know Him as He wants to be known Let this devotional book only serve as a helper to
