Coping with Climate Change Rosina M. Bierbaum, Daniel G. Brown, Jan L. McAlpine, 2008 Coping with Climate Change National Summit Proceedings is a remarkable book for a remarkable time Its 256 pages capture great thinking and ideas from environmental leaders regarding national adaptation strategies to climate change The book presents the discussions papers and presentations from the historic 2007 National Summit on Coping with Climate Change hosted by the University of Michigan s School of Natural Resources and Environment SNRE The book contains keynote speeches transcripts of breakout sessions and panel discussions and the candid and valuable insights from sector syntheses and scenario summaries The companion CD has many of the key PowerPoint presentations as well as photos from the Summit SNRE organized the May 8 10 event as the University s commitment to the Clinton Global Initiative a non partisan effort to devise and implement solutions to world challenges External Summit sponsorship came from Google Inc the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation the Frey Foundation the National Science Foundation and the U S Environmental Protection Agency The nation has lost a decade in thinking seriously about coping with climate change This Summit was an effort to jump start that conversation with science and policy leaders and put SNRE in the forefront of innovative thinking to confront climate change said SNRE Dean Rosina M Bierbaum

The Environmental Politics of Sacrifice Michael Maniates, John M. Meyer, 2010 An argument that the idea of sacrifice with all its political baggage opens new paths to environmental sustainability Global Environmental Politics, 2005 The Politics and Pleasures of Consuming Differently Kate Soper, Martin Ryle, Lyn Thomas, 2009 Analyzing representations and practices of consumption in the Western world this book offers a perspective on the themes of counter consumerism ecological crisis and sustainability It is suitable for students in media cultural and literary studies as well as in sociology and environmental studies Promoting Critical Practice in Adult Education Jennifer A. Sandlin, 2004-07 Offering theoretical and practical knowledge to help critical adult educators in their attempts to enact critical pedagogy in their own classroom this volume explores critical theory feminism critical postmodernism Africentrism queer theory and cultural studies Picking up on the themes first raised by Elizabeth Ellsworth critical theory and classic critical pedagogy do not get a particularly easy ride None of the authors claims that critical approaches are a simple solution to the tangles of late modernity In every case the authors see critical pedagogy as complex insightful challenging limited and difficult to put into practice But in every case they see critical perspectives as offering the hope and potential of a more just world The idea that critical perspectives on teaching are difficult to enact in the classroom is not new And what do we mean by critical perspectives anyway In this volume some of the most exciting scholars in adult education whether established or emerging provide insights into what it means to be critical and how it affects the concrete practices of teaching adults This is the 102nd issue of the quarterly higher education report New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Islam and Development Abbas Mirakhor, Idris Samawi Hamid, 2009 International Review for Environmental Strategies, 2000 Export Partner Dependence and Environmental Degradation, 1965-2000 Andrew Kent Jorgenson, 2004 Consuming Architecture Sarah Chaplin, Eric Holding, 1998-05-07 Articles on the nature of consumerism in relation to architectural practice Consuming Sustainability Northern Critical Scholars Collective, 2005 Examining several contemporary environmental controversies including water consumption food safety and air pollution this guide illustrates how a critical perspective can aid in understanding such complex social economic and political issues Key concepts in environmental social science are introduced to clarify controversies and address broader questions such as How do our consumption decisions affect ecosystems Can we rely on governments to maintain environmental well being Do those living in rural areas see the environment differently from urban dwellers and Is sustainability possible The discussion both examines the disputes and demonstrates that ecological problems and their solutions are as much social and political as they are scientific Activism resources at the end of each chapter are included as are suggestions on ways to reduce individual ecological footprints Brookmire Bulletins Brookmire Economic Service, Inc., New York,1924 Lived Experiences of Public Consumption Daniel Thomas Cook,2008-02-27 Lived Experiences of Public Consumption brings together original research of anthropologists and sociologists whose work begins with the premise that culture and markets commerce are inseparable Chapters cover a range of topical areas such as authenticity in a Thai handicraft market higgerling among women in Jamaica and global shopping in Australia Cultures and practices from almost every continent are represented in studies addressing the ways in which the shifting landscapes of global commerce find expression in the political dynamics of marketplaces
