At Egypt:

British Military Operations in Egypt and the Sudan Harold E. Raugh Jr., 2008-05-02 The British Army's campaigns in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 were among the most dramatic and hard fought in British military history In 1882 the British sent an expeditionary force to Egypt to quell the Arabic Revolt and secure British control of the Suez Canal its lifeline to India The enigmatic British Major General Charles G Gordon was sent to the Sudan in 1884 to study the possibility of evacuating Egyptian garrisons threatened by Muslim fanatics the dervishes in the Sudan While the dervishes defeated the British forces on a number of occasions the British eventually learned to combat the insurrection and ultimately largely through superior technology and firepower vanquished the insurgents in 1898 British Operations in Egypt and the Sudan A Selected Bibliography enumerates and generally describes and annotates hundreds of contemporary current and hard to find books journal articles government documents and personal papers on all aspects of British military operations in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 Arranged chronologically and topically chapters cover the various campaigns focusing on specific battles leading military personalities and the contributions of imperial nations as well as supporting services of the British Army This definitive volume is an indispensable reference for researching imperialism colonial history and British military operations leadership and tactics

Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert Hélène Cuvigny, 2021-08-21 A detailed archaeological study of life in Egypt's Eastern desert during the Roman period by a leading scholar Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert is a two volume set collecting Hélène Cuvigny's most important articles on Egypt's Eastern Desert during the Roman period The excavations she directed uncovered a wealth of material including tens of thousands of texts written on pottery fragments ostraca Some are administrative texts but many more are correspondence both official and private written by and to the people mostly but not all men who lived and worked in these remote and harsh environments supported by an elaborate network of defense administration and supply that tied the entire region together The contents of Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert have all been published earlier in peer reviewed venues but most appear here for the first time in English All of the contributions have been checked or translated by the editor and brought up to date with respect to bibliography and some have been significantly rewritten by the author in order to take account of the enormous amount of new material discovered since the original publications A full index makes this body of work far more accessible than it was before This book assembles into one collection thirty years of detailed study of this material conjuring in vivid detail the lived experience of those who inhabited these forts often through their own expressive language and the realia of desert geography military life sex religion quarry operations and imperial administration in the Roman world Tourist Notes in Egypt. (1871).
