Art Game:

Video Games as Art Frank G. Bosman, Archibald L.H.M. van Wieringen, 2022-11-07 Video games are a relative late arrival on the cultural stage While the academic discipline of game studies has evolved quickly since the nineties of the last century the academia is only beginning to grasp the intellectual philosophical aesthetical and existential potency of the new medium The same applies to the question whether video games are or are not art in and on themselves Based on the Communication Oriented Analysis the authors assess the plausibility of games as art and define the domains associated with this question

Ritchie Mined - Volume I Bill H. Ritchie, 2018-05-03 Short summaries of 3 026 essays by Bill H Ritchie artist teacher and visionary drawn from his journals written between 1969 2009 He structured the headings of each article according an imaginary place he calls Emeraldal imagining ten islands on a lake where he as a recipient of a mythical prize is encouraged to write freely about anything that seems important to an artist teacher and philosopher Mindful of the use of new technologies each essay summary has key index features which would allow a reader having a computer and optional CD ROM to retrieve the full text of any article Or using freely chosen keywords of their own find the articles which have those words in them New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression Marcel Cornis-Pope, 2014-11-15 Begun in 2010 as part of the Histories of Literatures in European Languages series sponsored by the International Comparative Literature Association the current project on New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression recognizes the global shift toward the visual and the virtual in all areas of textuality the printed verbal text is increasingly joined with the visual often electronic text This shift has opened up new domains of human achievement in art and culture The international roster of 24 contributors to this volume pursue a broad range of issues under four sets of questions that allow a larger conversation to emerge both inside the volume s sections and between them The four sections cover 1 Multimedia Productions in Theoretical and Historical Perspective 2 Regional and

Intercultural Projects 3 Forms and Genres and 4 Readers and Rewriters in Multimedia Environments The essays included in this volume are examples of the kinds of projects and inquiries that have become possible at the interface between literature and other media new and old They emphasize the extent to which hypertextual multimedia and virtual reality technologies have enhanced the sociality of reading and writing enabling more people to interact than ever before At the same time however they warn that as long as these technologies are used to reinforce old habits of reading writing they will deliver modest results One of the major tasks pursued by the contributors to this volume is to integrate literature in the global informational environment where it can function as an imaginative partner teaching its interpretive competencies to other components of the cultural landscape

Embodied Metaphors in Film, Television, and Video Games Kathrin Fahlenbrach,2015-10-05 In cognitive research metaphors have been shown to help us imagine complex abstract or invisible ideas concepts or emotions Contributors to this book argue that metaphors occur not only in language but in audio visual media well This is all the more evident in entertainment media which strategically sell their products by addressing their viewers immediate reflexive understanding through pictures sounds and language This volume applies cognitive metaphor theory CMT to film television and video games in order to analyze the embodied aesthetics and meanings of those moving images

Teaching Artistic Research Ruth Mateus-Berr,Richard Jochum,2020-05-05 With artistic research becoming an established paradigm in art education several questions arise How do we train young artists and designers to actively engage in the production of knowledge and aesthetic experiences in an expanded field How do we best prepare students for their own artistic research What comprises a curriculum that accommodates a changed learning making and research landscape And what is the difference between teaching art and teaching artistic research What are the specific skills and competences a teacher should have Inspired by a symposium at the University of Applied Arts Vienna in 2018 this book presents a diversity of well reasoned answers to these questions
