Blind Chance:

The Cinema of Krzysztof Kieslowski Marek Haltof, 2004 Since his death in 1996 Krzysztof Kieslowski has remained the best known contemporary Polish filmmaker and one of the most popular and respected European directors internationally renowned for his ambitious Decalogue and Three Colors trilogy In this new addition to the Directors Cuts series Marek Haltof provides a comprehensive study of Kieslowski's cinema discussing industrial practices in Poland and stressing that the director did not fit the traditional image of a great East Central European auteur He draws a fascinating portrait of the stridently independent director's work noting that Kieslowski was not afraid to express unpopular views in film or in life Haltof also shows how the director's work remains unique in the context of Polish documentary and narrative cinema

Running and Clicking Sabine Schenk, 2013-10-29 Running and Clicking examines how Future Narratives push against the confines of their medium Studying Future Narratives in movies interactive films and other electronic media that allow for nodes this volume demonstrates how the dividing line between film and game is progressively dissolved Focused on traditional mass media transitional media and new media it also touches on transmedial storytelling and virtual reality and offers a discussion of the political power of the imaginary and the twilight of Future Narratives in the post human hegemony of the simulated real
