Manfred Leve, Joseph Beuys

Block Beuys:

Block Beuys, photographs Manfred Leve, Joseph Beuys, 2004 Joseph Beuys created his Block Beuys installation in the 1960s out of greatly varied materials and salvaged items that were selected manipulated altered and brought together in unusual ways The objects correspond to one another and in their unmistakable forms refer to the artist's work in its entirety Block Beuys is installed in a series of seven interconnected rooms in the Hessisches Landesmuseum in Darmstadt In Leve's view Beuys the photographer Manfred Leve has documented Block Beuys not only in the variety of its individual pieces but also with a view of the entire work of art His black and white photos devoid of any kind of staging allow a thorough and genuine look at this radiant work Terror and the Sublime in Art and Critical Theory G. Ray, 2005-09-02 The eleven interconnected essays of this book penetrate the dense historical knots binding terror power and the aesthetic sublime and bring the results to bear on the trauma of September 11 and the subsequent War on Terror Through rigorous critical studies of major works of post 1945 and contemporary culture the book traces transformations in art and critical theory in the aftermath of Auschwitz and Hiroshima Critically engaging with the work of continental philosophers Theodor W Adorno Jacques Derrida and Jean Francois Lyotard and of contemporary artists Joseph Beuys Damien Hirst and Boaz Arad the book confronts the shared cultural conditions that made Auschwitz and Hiroshima possible and offers searching meditations on the structure and meaning of the traumatic historical event Ray argues that globalization cannot be separated from the collective tasks of working through historical genocide He provocatively concludes that the current US led War on Terror must be grasped as a globalized inability to mourn

Sculpture and the Vitrine John C. Welchman, 2017-07-05 Vitrines and glass cabinets are familiar apparatuses that have in large part defined modern modes of display and visibility both within and beyond the museum They separate objects from their contexts group them with other objects both similar and dissimilar and often serve to reinforce their intrinsic or aesthetic values The vitrine has much in common with the picture frame the plinth and the gallery but it has not yet received the kind of detailed art historical and theoretical discussion that has been brought to these other modes of formal display The twelve contributions to this volume examine some of the points of origin of the vitrine and the various relations it brokers with sculpture first in the Wunderkammer and cabinet of curiosities and then in dialog with the development of glazed architecture beginning with Paxton's Crystal Palace 1851 The collection offers close discussions of the role of the vitrine and shop window in the rise of commodity culture and their apposition with Constructivist design in the work of Frederick Kiesler as well as original readings of the use of vitrines in Surrealism and Fluxus and in work by Joseph Beuys Paul Thek Claes Oldenburg and his collaborators Jeff Koons Mike Kelley Dan Graham Vito Acconci Damien Hirst and Josephine Meckseper among others Sculpture and the Vitrine also raises key questions about the nature and implications of vitrinous space including its fronts onto desire and the spectacle transparency and legibility and onto ideas and practices associated with the archive collecting preserving and ordering Ephemeral Monuments

Marina Pugliese, 2013 This is an indispensable volume for creators curators and conservators of installation art Installation art is an evolving often ephemeral medium that defies rigid categorization It has also radically transformed the concepts of space time and the experience of art The conservation field is faced with unique challenges over how best to manage and preserve the essence of these works How detailed can documentation get When does the replacement of original components become acceptable How does the field cope with the obsolescence of certain technologies By exploring the questions and dilemmas facing those who care for art installations this book intends to raise awareness and promote discussion about the various conservation approaches for these works

Leve Sieht Beuys Manfred Leve, 2004 Joseph Beuys, Das Ende des 20. Jahrhunderts Susanne Willis, 2007 In 1984 Joseph Beuys assembled his monumental The End of the 20th Century in Haus der Kunst in Munich 44 basalt blocks with conical sections drilled out of them the resulting stoppers slotted back into place using a bed of felt and clay He arranged the blocks to create an animated vibrant formation that charged the entire room with meaning The relocation of the work to the new Munich Pinakothek der Moderne set an almost impossible challenge for conservators not least owing to the fiery debate whether an oeuvre an artist had himself laid out could be touched in the first place But in the end they succeeded a key late 20th century artwork was given a new location and none of its suggestive powers had been forfeited in the process

Umbrella, 2004 Nietzsche and "an Architecture of Our Minds" Alexandre Kostka, Irving Wohlfarth, 1999 Appropriated as an icon by an astonishingly diverse spectrum of people Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche has been the subject of countless volumes of literature Until now though there has been no in depth study devoted specifically to Nietzsches thoughts and impact on architecture In the essays comprising Nietzsche and An Architecture of Our Minds thirteen eminent scholars from a wide variety of disciplines including art history architecture and architecture theory literature philosophy and city planning address his far reaching notion of an architecture commensurate with the modern mind They assess the relationship of Nietzschean philosophy to art and architecture elucidate frequent misunderstandings and determine patterns of influence illuminating an unsurveyed aspect of the philosophy of one of the most profound thinkers of the modern age
