Blue Hour:

Blue Hour Carolyn Forché, 2010-08-24 Blue Hour is an elusive book because it is ever in pursuit of what the German poet Novalis called the lost presence beyond appearance The longest poem On Earth is a transcription of mind passing from life into death in the form of an abecedary modeled on ancient gnostic hymns Other poems in the book especially Nocturne and Blue Hour are lyric recoveries of the act of remembering though the objects of memory seem to us vivid and irretrievable the rage to summon and cling at once fierce and distracted The voice we hear in Blue Hour is a voice both very young and very old It belongs to someone who has seen everything and who strives imperfectly desperately to be equal to what she has seen The hunger to know is matched here by a desire to be new totally without cynicism open to the shocks of experience as if perpetually for the first time though unillusioned wise beyond any possible taint of a false or assumed innocence Robert Boyers
