The Blue Formica Table Robert Welch,1999 The inter related poems in this collection are conversations between the poet and his father The book outlines a difficult relationship and the poems become a gesture toward someone unknown yet terribly familiar echoing perhaps everyman's relationship with his father The rigor of the father's approach in language accurate strenuous and bold is released The exchanges are sharp and the relationship is dramatically developed The table forms a focus and an image and the city of Cork is made vibrantly real throughout the poem
