Episode 21 Isaiah 40 66 The story of how Israel gained and lost the land becomes a treasure that they carry with them into exile The poetry in these passages is written to inspire and invite God s homesick people in Babylon to become pioneers and return home to Israel The God of Israel is no regional deity but is the one and only God of all everywhere and all the time Through fire and water chaos and captivity the people called by God and redeemed by God also belong to God

Episode 22 1 and 2 Chronicles Ezra Nehemiah The people returning home from exile in successive waves must rebuild their whole way of life Ezra and Nehemiah look at the practical need for city walls and a center for worship The Chronicler stresses the importance of re remembering our story in the right way in order to understand who we are in this new life The practices that sustained the people in exile will define a people who weren t old enough to remember life before exile

Episode 23 Apocalyptic Daniel Apocalyptic literature is not primarily about future events It looks at traumatic events in the present and finds a divine plan at work By using vivid symbols and imagery the court tales and visions of Daniel stress that God is ultimately controls human events The identity of faithful people is defined by living faithfully according to the covenant teachings in a context where those values are under threat Faith has its price but our hope in God empowers us to never give up

Episode 24 Revelation Revelation is a book written for poor people struggling under great duress It uses vivid terrifying images to express God s unswerving faithfulness and the faithfulness of those who stand firm in the face of dehumanizing forces in the world The symbol of hope in Revelation is the new creation and loyal love between God and the faithful This symbol provides comfort courage and assurance that the one who made a covenant with all things at the very beginning will be with us at the end of all things
