Sex Discrimination in Uncertain Times Margaret Thornton, 2010-09-01 This collection of essays arose from a conference held to mark the silver anniversary of the Australian Sex Discrimination Act 1984 The collection has two aims first to honour the contributions of both the spirited individuals who valiantly fought for the enactment of the legislation against the odds and those who championed the new law once it was passed secondly to present a stock take of the Act within the changed socio political environment of the 21st century The contributors present clear eyed appraisals of the legislation in addition to considering new forms of legal regulation such as Equality Act and the significance of a Human Rights Act The introduction of a proactive model which would impose positive duties on organisations is explored as an alternative to the existing individual complaint based model of legislation The contributors also pay attention to the international human rights framework particularly the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People The essays are illuminated by recourse to a rich vein of historical and contemporary literature Regard is also paid to the comparative experience of other jurisdictions particularly the UK and Canada

Breakthrough - Women's Bible Study Participant Workbook Barb Roose, 2021-04-06 Let go of feeling like you are not a good enough Christian and find freedom in Christ by studying Paul s letter to the Galatians in Breakthrough by Barb Roose Have you ever felt that being a good Christian means you've got to follow a bunch of rules and measure up. If so, you aren't alone. In this six-week Bible study of Galatians, Barb Roose shows us that even the believers in the early church struggled to let go of rule-keeping and performance in order to embrace God's free gift of grace. In his letter to the Galatians, Paul pours out his heart and faith to set them straight, addressing so many of the same questions and problems we still face today, such as: Who has led you to believe you have to follow rules and measure up? Why do you think you have to be perfect for God? Does God only show up or love you when you get it right? If you've ever struggled with these questions or felt trapped by rules or religion, this study will provide a path to discover your freedom in Christ. Through this study, women will learn to stop trying to measure up and embrace God's grace. Distinguish between lies and truth. Embrace God's promise of freedom. Components for this six-week Bible study, each available separately, include a Participant Workbook, a Leader Guide, and video sessions with six 25-minute segments with closed captioning.

Lawyers in Society Richard L. Abel, Philip Simon, Coleman Lewis, 1995-01-01. Among all those who encounter the law in the conduct of their lives or who consider it as a career, few have a solid understanding of the legal profession in America, and fewer still know anything about systems in other parts of the world. Lawyers in Society offers a concise comparative introduction to the practice of law in a number of countries: England, Germany, Japan, Venezuela, and Belgium. Extracted from the editors' three highly successful volumes, Lawyers in Society these essays guide readers through the differing worlds of civil and common law, law in Europe and Asia, and first and third world legal systems. One contribution addresses the changing role of women in the profession: women comprise half of all new lawyers in most countries, and the changes they are bringing. A new introduction and concluding essay reflect on the place of this volume in current and future research. Books in Print, 1977.
