The Big 50: Chicago Bears Adam L. Jahns, 2020-10-06 Longtime sportswriter Adam L. Jahns explores the living history of the team, counting down from number fifty to number one. This dynamic and comprehensive book brings to life the iconic franchise's remarkable story, including greats like Ditka, Payton, Urlacher, and more.

Chicago Bears Lew Freedman, 2008-09-15 One of only two remaining charter members of the National Football League, the Chicago Bears are a team steeped in history. With nine pro football championships and twenty-six hall of famers, the Bears are also among the most successful franchises in all of professional sports. Revised and updated to include the latest seasons on the gridiron, Chicago Bears: The Complete Illustrated History brings the team's vibrant history to life. Beginning with the franchise's 1919 origins as the Decatur Staleys, this lavishly illustrated book presents the highs and lows from more than nine decades of football. Here is the story of the first dynasty under George Papa Bear Halas, the Monsters of the Midway of the 1940s, the team's resurgence in the late 1960s, its 1985 Super Bowl win, and the run for the title in 2006. Former Chicago Tribune sportswriter and longtime Bears aficionado Lew Freedman highlights the legends who have donned Bears uniforms, outside characters like Red Grange, Bronko Nagurski, Sid Luckman, Mike Ditka, Dick Butkus, Gayle Sayers, Walter Payton, Mike Singletary, Brian Urlacher, and many more. He includes the numbers behind the stories, the stats, and team records, as well as pivotal plays in Bears history, from Halas's formation to William "The Refrigerator" Perry's touchdown runs. The book presents a key chapter of sports history and offers a fitting tribute to one of football's most beloved teams.

Lombardi Dies, Orr Flies, Marshall Cries Brad Schultz, 2015-11-05 The year 1970 was grim in the United States and worldwide. Vietnam, continuing civil and political divisions, a fear of growing lawlessness, all seemed to point to a bleak future. The 70s were also a time when traditional boundaries were being challenged, from the color of skin to the length of hair. Sports events, issues, and athletes from the very first year of this tumultuous decade reflect the dramatic changes that were taking place around the country. Nowhere was this more evident than in college football, where the University of Texas became the last all-white national champion in 1970, even as a freshman still ineligible to play was standing by to bring about integration. In Lombardi Dies, Orr Flies, Marshall Cries: The Sports Legacy of 1970, Brad Schultz covers the most significant and momentous sports stories from this single year in American history, reflecting on the deeper impact of these events both on the sporting world and on society as a whole. Integration, homosexuality, drugs, lawsuits, and tragedy all crossed the sporting landscape in 1970, including pivotal moments such as student athlete protests against racism in college football, the debut of Monday Night Football, a challenge to baseball's reserve clause, and the plane crash carrying Marshall University's football team that killed everyone on board. Schultz tells these stories and more thoughtfully, placing them within the context of the political, social, and cultural events taking place across the country and around the world. Many of the athletes from 1970 may no longer be with us their records may have been broken and younger athletes may have taken their place but forty five years later it is time to look back and reflect on the significance of the events that took place in this unforgettable sports year Chronicling a remarkable time in the history of American sports this book will interest historians sports fans and those wanting to learn more about the impact of sports on culture and society The USA TODAY College Football Encyclopedia 2008-2009 Bob Boyles,Paul Guido,2008-08-04 The result of 15 years of exhaustive research this work is the definitive statistical and factual reference for everything related to college football in the past 50 years Aethlon ,1989
