Quah,2015-03-24 Research on the family has expanded considerably across Asia but studies tend to be fragmented focusing on narrow issues within limited areas cities towns small communities and may not be accessible to international readers These limitations make it difficult for researchers students policy makers and practitioners to obtain the information they need The Routledge Handbook of Families in Asia fills that gap by providing a current and comprehensive analysis of Asian families by a wide range of experts in a single publication The thirty two chapters of this comparative and multi disciplinary volume are organized into nine major themes conceptual approaches methodological issues family life in the context of culture family relationships across the family life cycle issues of work and income stress and conflict family diversity family policy and laws and environmental setting of homes Each chapter examines family life across Asian countries studying cultural similarities and differences and exploring how families are changing and what trends are likely to develop in the future To provide a fruitful learning experience for the reader each chapter offers examples relevant data and a comprehensive list of references Offering a complete interdisciplinary overview of families in Asia the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policy makers and practitioners across the disciplines of Asian Studies Sociology Demography Social Work Law Social Policy Anthropology Geography Public Health and Architecture

Grandchildren of the Ga'e Ancestors A. Molnar,2022-08-08 Grandchildren of the Ga e Ancestors focuses on the social organization cosmology and ritual system of Hoga Sara society on the island of Flores The first anthropological account of this eastern Indonesian people this study challenges the classical models of descent and alliance by demonstrating the limitations of these analytical abstractions for understanding the social system of the Hoga Sara The intricacies of social organization and the formation of social identities of groups and individuals are disentangled by utilizing the concepts of house society origin structures and orders of precedence Aspects focused on include the pivotal role of the first born historical development of the society sacrificial practices and the instrumental role of the ritual system in the continuing exchanges among people and with their ancestors

Minangkabau and Negri Sembilan P. E. de. Josselin de Jong,2012-12-06 As soon as one has to decide on a system of transliteration for the languages spoken in Minangkabau and Negri Sembilan one is faced by peculiar difficulties In the first place one has the choice between adopting the Dutch system the Indonesian which is derived from it the British or a scientifically satisfactory one Then should one spell the Minangkabau words according to their pronunciation or in their Malaicised form as the Minangkahau themselves do at least when writing in Arabic characters Further there is the difficulty that we do not really know what the language of Negri Sembilan is like from the scattered data one gets the impression that it should rather be considered a form of Minangkabau than a form of Malay but European writers on this State have diligently corrected the native words and expressions giving them as much as possible a Malay appearance After some hesitation we adopted the following principles of trans literation A We shall spell the Minangkabau words in accordance with their pronunciation as is customary when Minangkabau texts are published in their Romanised form B Negri Sembilan words will be given in their Malay form although there is reason to suppose that in the actual spoken language these words may differ quite considerably from the way they have been rendered here. For both the Sumatran and the Peninsular words we shall follow the official spelling of the Indonesian Republic.
