Bridgehead Afghanistan:

Bridgehead Afghanistan Wilhelm Dietl, 1986 Repression, Resistance, and Women in Afghanistan Hafizullah Emadi, 2002-08-30 Afghan women have faced an exhaustive struggle in the battle to change their status and improve their situation Emadi takes a long look at the role of development and modernization policies implemented by the state in the pre and post Soviet eras under the Taliban and beyond He finds that such policies have failed to bring about much needed change and improvement for women Modernization strategies benefited only a small segment of urban women and left the plight of rural women unchanged Although a small segment of middle and upper class women organized themselves and fought to bring about changes in their status and to end gender inequality their efforts alone did not meet with much success Islamic orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the Taliban era restricted women's freedom of movement access to education and medical care Using personal accounts not readily available to researchers or scholars Emadi explores the diverse factors that contributed to women's oppression both at home and in society This study provides a detailed analysis of state policies toward women's emancipation within the context of a traditional Islamic society It chronicles the course of the women's movement and women's organizations still active in the political arena and puts forth an alternative plan to involve women in the reconstruction process in both urban and rural areas

Russian-Soviet Unconventional Wars in the Caucasus, Central Asia, and Afghanistan Robert F. Baumann, 1993 Russian-Soviet Unconventional Wars in the Caucasus, Central Asia, and Afghanistan [Illustrated Edition] Dr. Robert F. Baumann, 2015-11-06 Includes 12 maps and 4 tables In recent years the U S Army has paid increasing attention to the conduct of unconventional warfare However the base of historical experience available for study has been largely American and overwhelmingly Western In Russian-Soviet Unconventional Wars in the Caucasus Central Asia and Afghanistan Dr Robert F Baumann makes a significant contribution to the expansion of that base with a well researched analysis of four important episodes from the Russian Soviet experience with unconventional wars Primarily employing Russian sources including important archival documents only recently declassified and made available to Western scholars Dr Baumann provides an insightful look at the Russian conquest of the Caucasian mountaineers 1801-59 the subjugation of Central Asia 1839-81 the reconquest of Central Asia by the Red Army 1918-33 and the Soviet war in Afghanistan 1979-89 The history of these wars especially as it relates to the battle tactics force structure and strategy employed in them offers important new perspectives on elements of continuity and change in combat over two centuries This is the first study to provide an in depth examination of the evolution of the Russian and Soviet unconventional experience on the predominantly Muslim southern periphery of the former empire There the Russians encountered fierce resistance by peoples whose cultures and views of war differed sharply from their own Consequently this Leavenworth Paper addresses not only issues germane to combat but to a wide spectrum of civic and propaganda operations as well
