Best Funeral Meditations Ciss Publishing, 1998 This collection of best funeral meditations provides a wide range of messages that address almost every death situation from the anticipated to the tragic These classic meditations have been gathered from the writings and contributions of pastors church leaders and teachers of many denominations Among the situations addressed are For the nominal church member For a little child For a non Christian For the death of a child shortly after birth For a college student killed in an auto accident For a sixteen year old shot to death For a woman who committed suicide For a church member who served others For a 40 year old cancer patient For a man who loved the outdoors For a Sunday morning worship service following a death and many more A Collection of Funeral Sermons John Shower, Jeremy Collier, 1681 Grieving with Hope Albín Masarik, 2017-12-31 In this well researched work Dr Alb n Masarik explores various features of funeral sermons arising from their unique context and homiletic process While funeral sermons are an important element in pastoral care of churches and the wider community theological reflection of this weighty responsibility can be hard to find Addressing the definition of a funeral sermon their categorization purpose and context this book brings clarity to inform the exercise of preaching a funeral sermon and help pastors and theologians grapple with how to best shepherd their flock and exalt our Saviour in the midst of bereavement Brief Funeral Meditations Charles M. Chakour, 1971 Mary Magdalene was grieving when she went to anoint the body of Jesus at the tomb on the morning after the sabbath was over She had no idea that she was about to become the first to hear the good news of Jesus resurrection When she realized what had happened she ran to tell the others When she told them that Jesus was alive that she had actually seen him they did not believe her But the news would soon bring great joy to all who heard and believed As the children hear and experience the story of the empty tomb from Mark 16 1 11 they will understand Mary s joy at hearing the words Do not be alarmed He Jesus has been raised he is not here Mark 16 6 They will have opportunities to talk about what it means to be Jesus disciple today and to explore how they too can tell the good news to others For more information about PowerXpress go to www.powerxpress.com A Time to Die Kent D. Davis, 2025-08-04 Few moments in pastoral ministry require as much wisdom sensitivity and spiritual discernment as standing before grieving families to speak words of comfort and hope Whether you ve been called to the bedside of a dying saint or asked to officiate the funeral of someone whose eternal destiny remains uncertain you understand the sacred weight of these occasions and the desperate need for words that bring healing rather than additional hurt This collection was born from the reality that funeral preparation often happens under the most challenging circumstances limited time intense emotions and the pressure to provide comfort while maintaining biblical integrity I ve sat where you re sitting staring at a

Near to the Brokenhearted Rickey Collum, John Young, 2024-12-17 Books of funeral sermon outlines are plentiful This is perhaps not too surprising given that most people have some sort of funeral service which typically includes a sermon But funeral sermon outlines created by and for preachers within the Churches of Christ are much harder to come by This collection of outlines originally compiled by the respected preacher teacher author and administrator Jack Wilhelm prior to his death in 2016 helps fill that space on the bookshelf by bringing together over fifty outlines from Churches of Christ ministers throughout the United States Many of these outlines contain widely applicable thoughts and scriptural passages while others are tailored for use in specific circumstances such as the death of a young church member or of a congregation's elder The style length and formatting of the outlines vary from entry to entry reflecting the differing approaches of the contributors themselves Editors Rickey Collum and John Young have supplemented these outlines with several additional essays These include an introduction giving a brief biography of Jack Wilhelm and the story behind the collection a short overview of the history of funeral sermons within Churches of Christ and the full text of the message Rickey delivered at Jack's funeral service. A prologue also written by Jack Wilhelm gives further insight regarding his work in compiling the outlines and biographical details of the nearly two dozen contributors whose sermons fill the book's pages. Along with its relevance to preachers facing one of their most challenging tasks, this collection will also be of interest to scholars of homiletics, historians of the Churches of Christ, and the broader Restoration Movement heritage, and those with a passion for pastoral care. Weep Not, 19?? Preaching Death Lucy Bregman, 2011. Christians traditionally have had something substantive and important to say about death and afterlife. Yet the language and imagery used in sermons about life and death have given way to language designed to comfort and celebrate. In Preaching Death Lucy Bregman tracks the changes in Protestant American funerals over the last one hundred years. Early twentieth-century natural immortality doctrinal funeral sermons transitioned to an era of silence and denial, eventually becoming expressive biographical tributes to the deceased. The contemporary death awareness movement, with the death as a natural event perspective, has widely impacted American culture, affecting health care, education, and psychotherapy, and creating new professions such as hospice nurse and grief counselor. Bregman questions whether this transition, which occurred unobserved and without conflict, was inevitable, and what alternative paths could have been chosen. In tracing this unique story, she reveals how Americans' comprehension of death shifted in the last century and why we must find ways to move beyond it.

The village pulpit, 66 short sermons Sabine Baring Gould, 1881 Preaching for Special Services Scott M. Gibson, 2001-04-01. Sooner or later every pastor will be called on to conduct special services: Baptisms, weddings, funerals, infant presentations, and evangelistic services. Each in their own way, challenge pastors to find the right words to mark the occasion. Preaching for Special Services will help pastors prepare sermons for these special services. Each chapter explores a different occasion and offers the perspective, encouragement, and practical advice that pastors need as they plan their messages. Through this useful book, pastors will discover how Christ-centered special occasion preaching can make a difference in the lives of their listeners. The Reformation of the Dead C. Koslofsky, 1999-10-21. Koslofsky examines the human encounter with death in Germany from the eve of the Reformation to the rise of Pietism. The Protestant Reformation transformed the funeral more profoundly than any other ritual of the traditional church. Luther's doctrine of salvation by faith alone made the foundation of the traditional funeral intercession for the dead in Purgatory obsolete. By drawing on anthropological interpretations of death ritual, this study explores the changing relationships between the body, the soul, the living, and the dead in the daily life of early modern Germany. Three Funeral Sermons delivered December 9, 1849, the Sunday after the funeral of the Rev. J. H. Evans James Harington EVANS, 1850 The Cyclopaedia of Practical Quotations, English and Latin Jehiel Keeler Hoyt, 1886 A summary catalogue of Western manuscripts in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, which have not hitherto been catalogued in the quarto series. 7 vols. [the 2nd in 2 pt.]. Bodleian Library, 1895 A Summary Catalogue of Western Manuscripts in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, which
