Dynamics Of Literary Response:

The Dynamics of Literary Response Norman Norwood Holland,1968 The Dynamics of Literary Response Norman Norwood Holland,1975 The Dynamics of Literary Response Norman N. Holland,1989 Begins a series of theoretical discoveries about reading and writing intended to lead to a new kind of criticism Called theoretical criticism its goal is to look at literature from an acceptance of the relationship between the reader and the work The Dynamics of Literary Response Norman Norwood Holland,1968 “The” Dynamics of Literary Response Norman Norwood Holland,1975

Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett,2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett s collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis Hermeneutic Desire and Critical Rewriting M. Cornis-Pope,1991-12-01 Starting from a comprehensive examination of current poststructuralist and sociosemiotic theories of narrative this book formulates an interactive model of literary interpretation and pedagogy emphasising process critical self awareness and strategies of rereading rewriting A literary pedagogy premised on the concept of rewriting the author argues will enable readers to experience the process of narrative and critical construction creatively Metaphor Robert Rogers,2021-01-08 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1978 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 The Nature of Literary Response Clark McPhail,Norman Holland,2017-09-20 In a rare fusion of literary sensibility with psychological research Norman N Holland brings to light important data showing how personality in the fullest sense of character development and identity affects the way in which we read and interpret literature This book will show that readers respond to literature in terms of their own lifestyle character personality or identity By such terms psychoanalytic writers mean an individual s characteristic way of dealing with the demands of outer and inner reality Each new experience develops the style while the pre existing style shapes each new experience The sub title of this book Five Readers Reading reflects the fact that the author a distinguished literary critic worked with five student readers using a battery of psychological tests and extensive interviews to study the ways they reacted to classic short stories by Faulkner Hemingway and others Combining his own interpretation of the stories with his understanding of the readers and their reactions Holland derives four principles that inform literary response He then goes on to show how these principles apply not just to literary response but to the way personality shapes any experience The book carries Holland's previous studies of creation and responsive recreation forward to a major theoretical statement He rejects the artificial idea that one must think of a text or other event as separate from its perceivers illustrating the dynamics by which perceiver and perceived mutually create an experience For critics and students of the psychology of human behavior this is challenging and seminal reading
