Squirrel Visits His City Cousin Sid Janice M. Brown,2004-09 This is another story about Earl the Squirrel the main character from Earl The Squirrel And The Great Acorn Caper my previous book in the series In this adventure Earl meets lots of characters along the way who help give him directions on where to find his city Cousin Sid The city Squirrels used to live down in Battery Park until September 11 2001 when the most unthinkable happened in this country The World Trade Center was attacked and the towers were destroyed Many people inside and outside of the buildings perished Tragically there were also passengers in the airplanes that crashed in New York City Washington D C and Shanksville Pennsylvania who were victims and many of the animals that lived down in Battery Park were lost on that terrible day The Squirrel family moved uptown to Harlem to beautiful Central Park Earl along with his friend Ollie Owl decides to go visit his cousin Sid There s lots of fun and quite an adventure Come along won t you Earl the Squirrel and the Great Acorn Caper Janice M.

Brown,2004-09-01 This is a story which should appeal to both young and old alike It was conceived and written based upon the universal concept of God s Law Love Thy Neighbor and that many working together as a team are more successful working towards a common goal Earl The Squirrel is the hero in this story where different animals and species live together in one tree the same way we all live in one World get it They are led by Earl The Squirrel who tells them that if everyone would go out and gather whatever food they can they will be prepared to survive through the Winter When the job is done they celebrate and feel rewarded for co operating with one another in order for all to prosper together The End Just like Earl and his family and friends we too can survive the next major storm or 911 if we can learn to live in peace as one big family We must lead in finding better ways to resolve conflict with those we may disagree with while learning to manage our own anger I believe in the concept that it takes a village to prepare our young people to get along on this precious Earth that God has so graciously allowed us to exist While this is a basic Christian value there are no direct references to any particular religious belief The basic principles of Love Peace and togetherness are concepts that need to be encouraged in these troubling times There is a lot of bad in the World these days but our children represent all that is good It is for them that my heart is guided
