Under the Spell of Orpheus Judith E. Bernstock, 1991 This comprehensive view of the Orpheus myth in modern art focuses on an extremely rich artistic symbol and cuts through all the clichés to explore truly significant problems of meaning. The author takes a new approach to the iconography of major modern artists by incorporating psychological and literary analysis as well as biography. The three parts of the book explore the ways in which artists have identified with different aspects of the often paradoxical Orpheus myth. The first deals with artists such as Paul Klee, Carl Milles and Barbara Hepworth. In the second Max Beckmann, Oskar Kokoschka and Isamu Noguchi are discussed. Artists examined in the final part include Pablo Picasso, Jacques Lipchitz, Ethel Schwabacher and Cy Twombly. The author documents her argument with more than sixty illustrations.

Out of Bounds Lisa Philips, Johanna Burton, Alicia Ritson, Kate Wiener, 2019-07-16 The first anthology to assemble the writings of the groundbreaking art historian, critic and curator Marcia Tucker. These influential, hard-to-obtain texts, many of which have never before been published by Marcia Tucker, founding director of New York's New Museum, showcase her lifelong commitment to pushing the boundaries of curatorial practice and writing while rethinking inherited structures of power within and outside the museum. The volume brings together the only comprehensive bibliography of Tucker's writing and highlights her critical attention to art's relationship to broader culture and politics. The book is divided into three sections: monographic texts on a selection of the visionary artists whom Tucker championed among them, Bruce Nauman, Joan Mitchell, Richard Tuttle and Andres Serrano; exhibition essays from some of the formative group shows she organized such as Anti Illusion, Procedures, Materials (1969) and Bad Girls (1994) which expanded the canons of curating and art history; and other critical works including lectures that interrogated museum practice, inequities of the art world and institutional responsibility. These texts attest to Tucker's tireless pursuit of questions related to difference, marginalization, access and ethics, illuminating her significant impact on contemporary art discourse in her own time and demonstrating her lasting contributions to the field.

Contemporary Art in Texas Patricia Covo Johnson, 1995 Since the 1960s the contemporary art scene in Texas has developed impressively and the exciting new artforms from this State have reached a growing and appreciative audience. Museums have expanded the scope of their exhibitions, more artists and art patrons have come to live in the metropolitan areas and the fierce independence of Texas art has been increasingly recognized. Now in the 1990s and for the first time three generations of artists are working simultaneously alongside each other. Artists in Texas work in multiple modes and frequently with unorthodox materials away from the theoretical and commercial art world epicenters of New York and Los Angeles But the sheer size of Texas underscores the complexity of the art scene taken as a whole contemporary art in Texas has a nuance that is all its own and reflects its historical myths the dreams of its heroes and the social and political realities which pertain in the 1990s This book addresses all of these themes and provides an insightful overview of contemporary art in this unique part of the country Temporarily Possessed New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.),1995 From its conception The New Museum has played a unique role within the art community Temporarily Possessed relates the Museum's exhibition history and collecting practices to the interests of the larger global art community A detailed timeline charts international art events and major exhibitions and collecting precedents Excerpts from critical reviews and essays as well as supporting statements from artists collectors and curators including Louise Lawler Saul Dennison and William Olander offer a challenging appraisal of the last two decades

Collision Pete Gershon,2018-09-10 Winner 2019 Ron Tyler Award for Best Illustrated Book sponsored by the Texas State Historical Association TSHA In this expansive and vigorous survey of the Houston art scene of the 1970s and 1980s author Pete Gershon describes the city's emergence as a locus for the arts fueled by a boom in oil prices and by the arrival of several catalyzing figures including museum director James Harithas and sculptor James Surls Harithas was a fierce champion for Texan artists during his tenure as the director of the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston CAM He put Texas artists on the map but his renegade style proved too confrontational for the museum's benefactors and after four years he wore out his welcome After Harithas's departure from the CAM the chainsaw-wielding Surls established the Lawndale Annex as a largely unsupervised outpost of the University of Houston art department Inside this dirty cavernous warehouse a new generation of Houston artists discovered their identities and began to flourish Both the CAM and the Lawndale Annex set the scene for the emergence of small downtown artist-run spaces including Studio One the Center for Art and Performance Midtown Arts Center and DiverseWorks Finally in 1985 the Museum of Fine Arts presented Fresh Paint The Houston School a nationally publicized survey of work by Houston painters The exhibition capped an era of intensive artistic development and suggested that the city was about to be recognized along with New York and Los Angeles as a major center for art-making activity Drawing upon primary archival materials contemporary newspaper and magazine accounts and over sixty interviews with significant figures Gershon presents a narrative that preserves and interweaves the stories and insights of those who transformed the Houston art scene into the vibrant community that it is today Finders, Keepers Contemporary Arts Museum,Lynn McLanahan Herbert,1997 Catalog for exhibition held December 13 1997 January 25 1998 The Centennial Directory of the American Academy in Rome American Academy in Rome,1995 New York Magazine ,1984-04-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back
