Early Bird Special:

The Songwriter's Idea Book Sheila Davis, 1992-10-15 In her first two books Sheila Davis classified the major song forms and enduring principles that have been honored for decades by America's foremost songwriters. Those books have become required reading in music courses from NYU to UCLA. In The Songwriters Idea Book Davis goes one step further giving you 40 strategies for designing distinctive songs. You'll break new ground in your own songwriting by learning about the inherent relationship between language style, personality type, and the brain. You'll go step by step through the creative process as you activate, incubate, separate, and discriminate. You'll learn to use the whole brain techniques of imaging, brainstorming, and clustering. You'll expand your skilled use of figurative language with paragrams, metonyms, synecdoche, and antonomasia. You'll be challenged to design metaphors, form symbols, make puns, and coin words. And you'll learn how to prevent writer's block, increase your productivity, and maintain your creative flow. Over 100 successful student lyrics from pop, country, cabaret, and theater serve as role models to illustrate the whole brain songwriting process. MotorBoating, 2004-04

The Last Lap MARTIN C. MAYER, 2012-01-04 How many Sunbelt residents have you ever met who have relocated to the Northeast to retire? Why is the vast percentage of migration between these two areas mostly in one direction? What is the lure of the Sunbelt? Why does it shine so brightly in the hearts and minds of Northeasterners? SHELDON BRODSKY, not his real identity, shares some of his own experiences and perspectives on this phenomenon in this humorous tract designed to tickle your ribs while sobering your expectations, many of which could possibly be based upon hearsay or misinformation. Wherever you plan to retire, his message is that you should not mindlessly migrate but rather LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP. PROCEED WITH CAUTION AND NEVER COMMIT TO YOUR NEW ENVIRONMENT INTRACTABLY. Federal Register, 1976
