Blue Wilderness:

The Blue and the Green Jack Stauder, 2016-03-22 In The Blue and the Green anthropologist Jack Stauder analyzes how large scale political social and environmental processes have transformed ranching and rural life in the West Focusing on the community of Blue Arizona Stauder details how the problems of overgrazing erosion and environmental stresses on the open range in the early twentieth century coincided with a push by the newly created US Forest Service to develop fenced grazing allotments on federal lands Later in the twentieth century with the enactment of the Endangered Species Act and other laws the growing power of urban based environmental groups resulted in the reduction of federal grazing leases throughout the West The author combines historical research with oral interviews to explore the impact of these transformations on the ranchers residing in the Blue River Valley of eastern Arizona Stauder gives voice to these ranchers along with Forest Service personnel environmental activists scientists and others involved with issues on the Blue shedding light on how the ranchers rural way of life has changed dramatically over the course of the past century This is a fascinating case study of the effects of increasing government regulations and the influence of outsiders on ranching communities in the American West Apache National Forest (N.F.), Blue Range Primitive Area Mineral Exploration Proposal, 1973 Yaqui Deer Songs/Maso

Bwikam Larry Evers, Felipe S. Molina, 2023-01-10 Winner of the American Folklore Society's Chicago Folklore Prize Yaqui regard song as a kind of lingua franca of the intelligent universe It is through song that experience with other living things is made intelligible and accessible to the human community Deer songs often take the form of dialogues in which the deer and others in the wilderness world speak with one another or with the deer singers themselves It is in this way according to one deer singer that the wilderness world listens to itself even today In this book authentic ceremonial songs transcribed in both Yaqui and English are the center of a fascinating discussion of the Deer Song tradition in Yaqui culture Yaqui Deer Songs Maso Bwikam thus enables non Yaquis to hear these dialogues with the wilderness world for the first time Gunnison as action and which is bound by its very nature to be intensely personal I write a record of what absorbs my mind which may be very different from that which appeals to yours But if you are content to come with me upon these terms then let us start with my apologies in advance for the pages which may bore you and with my hopes that some may compensate you by pleasure or by profit I write these lines with a pad upon my knee heaving upon the long roll of the Indian Ocean running large and grey under a grey streaked sky with the rain swept hills of Ceylon just one shade greyer lining the Eastern skyline So under many difficulties it will be carried on which may explain if it does not excuse any slurring of a style which is at its best but plain English There was one memorable night when I walked forth with my head throbbing and my whole frame quivering from the villa of Mr Southey at Merthyr Behind me the brazen glare of Dowlais iron works lit up the sky and in front twinkled the many lights of the Welsh town For two hours my wife and I had sat within listening to the whispering voices of the dead voices which are so full of earnest life and of desperate endeavours to pierce the barrier of our dull senses They had quivered and wavered around us giving us pet names sweet sacred things the intimate talk of the olden time Graceful lights signs of spirit power had hovered over us in the darkness It was a different and a wonderful world
