Blue Horses:

Blue Horses Mary Oliver, 2016-10-11 In this stunning collection of new poems Mary Oliver returns to the imagery that has defined her life's work describing with wonder both the everyday and the unaffected beauty of nature Herons sparrows owls and kingfishers flit across the page in meditations on love artistry and impermanence Whether considering a bird's nest the seeming patience of oak trees or the artworks of Franz Marc Oliver reminds us of the transformative power of attention and how much can be contained within the smallest moments At its heart Blue Horses asks what it means to truly belong to this world to live in it attuned to all its changes Humorous gentle and always honest Oliver is a visionary of the natural world

The Artist Who Painted a Blue Horse Eric Carle, 2020-05-05 A brilliant new Eric Carle picture book for the artist in us all Every child has an artist inside them and this vibrant picture book from Eric Carle will help let it out The artist in this book paints the world as he sees it just like a child There's a red crocodile an orange elephant a purple fox and a polka dotted donkey More than anything there's imagination Filled with some of the most magnificently colorful animals of Eric Carle's career this tribute to the creative life celebrates the power of art

Leadership Alford L. McMichael, 2011-12-06 Take one look at him listen to him speak watch him act and you'll follow him Why Because throughout his life and military career Sergeant Major Al McMichael has proven himself to be a visionary who develops and nurtures ideas to fruition Anyone who is charged with leading teaching mentoring managing or caring for people should read the inspiring story of Al McMichael in Leadership Dean Mark Pizzo National Defense University in Washington D C There is only one sergeant major of the Marine Corps at any one time It is the highest rank an enlisted Marine can achieve From 1999 to 2003 the USMC's 14th sergeant major and the first African American to attain the position was Alford L. McMichael Now Sergeant Major McMichael shares how the values taught to him around the dinner table and in the hard times of his dirt poor Southern childhood took him to the top of his field and made him one of the most respected and valued leaders of our time This is not a guide that speaks only to military personnel This is not a guide that only CEOs will cherish The magic of McMichael's life lessons is that anyone can relate to and build success from them because McMichael himself learned them in the most modest of beginnings growing up in the 1950s with nine siblings in a single parent one story home in Hot Springs Arkansas It was the best training he could have received for the Marines and with down to earth practicality and an engaging anecdotal style McMichael demonstrates how the morals work ethic and self discipline he learned from his mother and grandmother gave him the life skills for groundbreaking success Practice dinner table values Find your compass Rely on intelligence over emotion Prepare so you can prosper Impress yourself first Give power to your people Lead from the heart These are among the pragmatic and distinctive nuggets of truth McMichael imparts in Leadership and whatever your walk in life they are the foundation for making great things happen Are you ready to experience the phenomenal results when you ask the best of yourself and those around you

A Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace Fernando Enns, Nina Schroeder-van 't Schip, Andres Pacheco-Lozano, 2023-04-05 This edited volume includes contributions by scholars, ministers, artists, and NGO workers from around the world who are interested in topics of Mennonitism, peacebuilding, and theologies of nonviolence. The papers published together here reflect the richness and diversity of peacebuilding interests and approaches within the current global Mennonite family and offer interdisciplinary explorations of peace and conflict with attention to historical, theological, and lived perspectives. The book includes papers based upon research and insights that were shared at the Second Global Mennonite Peacebuilding Conference and Festival 2019 at Mennorode in the Netherlands. The findings presented here are structured thematically with attention to key points of current concern and research, including among others studies on historical and current peacebuilding efforts pertaining to migration and refugee care, ecological justice, gender justice, interreligious dialogue, church-state relations, and racial justice. Southwestern American Indian Literature Conrad Shumaker, 2008 Southwestern American Indian Literature In the Classroom and Beyond addresses several challenges that teaching Southwestern American Indian literature presents and suggests innovative ways of teaching the material. Drawing on the author's experiences teaching literature both in the classroom and in the canyons of the Southwest, the book covers works ranging from the famous Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony to the underappreciated George Webb's A Pima Remembers. One chapter discusses teaching Sherman Alexie's Smoke Signals along with Silko's Yellow Woman as world literature, another functions as a guide to organizing a travel seminar that will enable students to experience American Indian literature and culture in potentially life-changing ways. This book provides a practical approach to the teaching of Southwestern American Indian literature without simplifying its inherent challenges. Post office directory of Lincolnshire Kelly's directories, Ltd, 1849 Marc Susanna Partsch, Franz Marc, 2001 Animal expressions Franz Marc's search for a universal art. Franz Marc (1880-1916) became known principally for his images of animals: blue horses, yellow tigers, red fawns. What was it that led him to concentrate on painting animals? Marc himself explained his choice of subject matter in these words: "From an early date I felt humankind to be ugly; animals seemed to me possessed of a greater beauty and purity. Seeing Marc merely as a painter of animals proves however premature." Marc, cofounder of the Blaue Reiter group of Expressionist artists, was deeply dissatisfied with the impurity of the world and was on a quest for a universal art which would resolve the contrarities of life in the harmony of creation. Using pure colors, highly charged with symbolic values, adopting crystalline shapes, and absorbing the influence of Cubism, he moved steadily towards an abstract order of image, coming closer to his own understanding of a better world. At the age of 36, Franz Marc's life was cut short when he died in the

A New Look at New Realism Eric P. Charles,2011-12-31 This volume brings to the attention of contemporary readers a tradition of psychological thought that has received little attention over the last century Psychology s history has been unimaginatively presented as a fight between behaviorists and mentalists A third alternative the New Realism which cuts through that dichotomy has been lost The New Realism was indeed once new This volume provides a glimpse of how this school of thought attempted to redefine the notion of mental processes including consciousness in psychological theorizing Holt s rejected the nativity of iconoclastic Watsonian behaviorists and thus the New Realism was thoughtful in ways that behaviorist social engineering was not The implications of these innovations in psychological theorizing are traced from the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary period The contributors provide these intellectual links along with efforts to look at the relatedness of the human organism and its world At their beginning these ideas are embedded in a reverence for William James s work particularly his later Radical Empiricism In contemporary psychology this legacy has given us the framework of ecological psychology as we know it today and provides the basis for several modern critiques of cognitive psychology The present volume opens the door for future historical inquiries This is an exemplary addition to the series on the History of Psychological Ideas
