Bridge The Silver Way:

Bridge the Silver Way David Silver, Tim Bourke, 2000 David Silver's three books of humorous bridge stories have received terrific throughout the bridge world. In all of them the hero is the author's alter ego Professor Silver first as a teacher in a community college and then as a bridge consultant as he moves into the realms of literary parody. Astute readers will recognize allusions to the works of Hemingway, Conan Doyle, Dickens and others while movie fans will enjoy the bridge versions of Citizen Kane, Casablanca and Star Trek TNG. And when the professor takes on Death or the Devil in the ultimate post mortem analysis you just know who's going to come out a winner. Challenge Your Declarer Play Danny Roth, 2000 So you think you're a good declarer. Most books on play take you up to the critical moment in a hand and then ask you to find the winning continuation. But at the table there is nobody to give you that all important nudge when an unexpected or difficult play is required and that's the way the hands are presented in this book. The collection of problems here will test those who are confident they are good declarers and will enable more modest readers to improve their game. Back cover

Competitive Bidding in the 21st Century Marshall Miles, 2000 In this book Miles addresses the complex arena of competitive bidding methods for the more advanced player. There are two earlier books on this topic by the same author 5 and 10 years old respectively and therefore superseded by this new work.

This book begins with basic types of the elimination play and moves on to more complex topics such as loser on loser plays and partial eliminations. It also addresses how to anticipate and avoid throw ins from the point of view of the defenders.
