of the concept of development from the inter war years through the 1950s when the expression Third World first emerged to the 1970s and the present when wholesale technology transfer and other new approaches emphasizing economic independence began to take precedence The chapters that follow chart the history of modern development administration focusing on important issues such as the role of the development administrator in the implementation of public policy the function of the public servant versus that of the politician bureaucracy in government and the increasing need for technical personnel to carry out development policies

Dynamic Development Accounting and Relative Income Traps Patrick A. Imam, Jonathan R. W. Temple, 2024-11 Previous research suggests that economy wide poverty traps are rarely observed in the data In this paper we explore a related hypothesis low income countries rarely improve their position relative to the US Using finite state Markov chains we show that upwards mobility is indeed limited Since capital output ratios are similar across countries and human capital is also converging the persistence of low relative income seems to originate in the persistence of low relative TFP We study the dynamics of relative TFP and how they interact with absolute levels of human capital casting new light on the future of convergence
