E Learning Revolution:

The E-learning Revolution Martyn Sloman, 2002 As the concept of e learning moves from the future into the present trainers and human resource professionals must not only adapt their methods to a new medium but also rethink the very nature of workplace education Written by a top training professional and leading authority on technology based development The E Learning Revolution is a call to arms that no one in training and development can afford to ignore Based on a series of hard hitting propositions that examine how organizational learning has evolved the book provides provocative insights on How learner centered educational technologies will demand a reexamination of the way professionals learn What trainers must do to acknowledge the changes in which organizations compete in the new connected economy Why barriers between knowledge management performance management and training must fall if a company wants to achieve its agenda Filled with case studies of companies like Ernst Young IBM and Hewlett Packard The E Learning Revolution provides a catalyst for change in a rapidly evolving profession

The E-learning Revolution Martyn Sloman, 2001 This text focuses on the evolving role of trainers and training within the organization It urges trainers not to be seduced by technology at the expense of their ultimate objective to enhance learning Built around a series of propositions it examines why barriers between knowledge management performance management and training must fall if competitive advantage through people is realized how technology that offers learner centred opportunities will redefine the concept of the learning organization why expertise in soft technology will give trainers new credibility why time not spend will be the scarce resource as learning competes with other organizational demands the validity of corporate universities and virtual business schools and what can be learnt from the different strategic responses to e learning of blue chip companies
