E Learning Fieldbook:

The E-learning Fieldbook Nicholas van Dam,2004 The E Learning Fieldbook teaches the expensive lessons learned by leading companies as they have implemented E learning

Summary of Nick Van Dam's The E-Learning Fieldbook Everest Media,2022-03-01T21:00:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1

In 1996 the first article on Internet based training was published in Training Magazine That year the e learning market grew from a few million dollars to 3 4 billion worldwide But in 2002 the stock market crashed and the e learning industry experienced a trough of disillusionment 2 The last event in the time flow is the merger in the e learning industry between SmartForce and SkillSoft in 2002 This merger created the largest global e learning vendor and it is viewed by CLO magazine as the beginning of the trend toward Enlightenment and Productivity 3 Today e learning has proved itself to be a credible opportunity and approach to learning though it has been hurt by some less than stellar implementations Many believe that there is no doubt about the importance of applying e learning when and where it adds value 4 E learning has proven to have a significant business impact as you will find in Chapter 2 of this Fieldbook Many organizations have successfully implemented e learning initiatives that were well aligned with specific business goals

E-Learning Sergio Kofuji,Elvis Pontes,Adilson Guelfi,2012-03-14 Adaptive E learning was proposed to be suitable for students with unique profiles particular interests and from different domains of knowledge so profiles may consider specific goals of the students as well as different preferences knowledge level learning style rendering psychological profile and more Another approach to be taken into account today is the self directed learning Unlike the adaptive E learning the Self directed learning is related to independence or autonomy in learning it is a logical link for readiness for E learning where students pace their classes according to their own needs This book provides information on the On Job Training and Interactive Teaching for E learning and is divided into four sections The first section covers motivations to be considered for E learning while the second section presents challenges concerning E learning in areas like Engineering Medical education and Biological Studies New approaches to E learning are introduced in the third section and the last section describes the implementation of E learning Environments

The AMA Handbook of E-Learning George M. Piskurich,2003-07-21 This authoritative sourcebook is a timely decision making tool for companies making the transition to or already using e learning Featuring all original contributions from high profile practitioners and renowned theorists the book reveals how top companies are implementing and using this crucial employee development tool Topics include analyzing organizational need selling e learning to the organization learning management systems synchronous collaboration learning portals repurposing materials outsourcing and vendor relations Other chapters focus on motivation and retention technological and software options measuring ROI and more
