Ea Of Virtues:

Epistemic Autonomy Jonathan Matheson, Kirk Lougheed, 2021-08-05 This is the first book dedicated to the topic of epistemic autonomy It features original essays from leading scholars that promise to significantly shape future debates in this emerging area of epistemology While the nature of and value of autonomy has long been discussed in ethics and social and political philosophy it remains an underexplored area of epistemology The essays in this collection take up several interesting questions and approaches related to epistemic autonomy Topics include the nature of epistemic autonomy whether epistemic paternalism can be justified autonomy as an epistemic value and or vice and the relation of epistemic autonomy to social epistemology and epistemic injustice Epistemic Autonomy will be of interest to researchers and advanced students working in epistemology ethics and social and political philosophy

Moral Development in a Global World Lene Arnett Jensen, 2015-04-02 This book presents international research findings showing that humans share moral concepts but following development different cultures become increasingly morally diverse

Resilience and the Virtue of Fortitude Craig Steven Titus, 2006-11 The present study employs the thought of Thomas Aquinas and his sources on fortitude and its related virtues while taking his dialogal method as a basis for critically appropriating reflections from other perspectives as well The book offers a renewed classic vision of the human person and the ordering of the sciences as read through the complementary and at one level corrective insights of empirical psychosocial studies on resilience Such a vibrant natural law approach to ethical norms and moral development offers guidelines and a framework for understanding human resilience Moreover it recognizes a theological transformation of such human capacities a spiritual resilience by proposing the New Law of grace Christ's teaching and the infused virtues as vital bases for Christian ethics Craig Steven Titus is research professor at the Institute for the Psychological Sciences as well as lecturer and researcher at the University of Fribourg Switzerland
