This book includes twenty-eight innovative chapters by specialists from across the arts reassessing Lawrence's relationship to aesthetic categories and specific art forms in their historical and critical contexts. A new picture of Lawrence as an artist emerges, expanding from traditional areas of enquiry in prose and poetry into the fields of drama, painting, sculpture, music, architecture, dance, historiography, life writing, and queer aesthetics. The Companion presents original research on topics such as Lawrence's politics in his art, his representations of technology, his practice of revising and rewriting, and the relationship between his criticism and creation of prose, poetry, and painting. This interdisciplinary Companion also makes a strong case for Lawrence's continuing relevance and aesthetic power as represented by case studies of his afterlives in biofiction, cinema, musical settings, and portraiture.

Wilson Company, 1930 The 1st ed includes an index to v 28-36 of St Nicholas Playing with Nature Sajal Nag, 2017-08-07 North East India is called nature's gift to India. It is mountainous, thickly forested, nourished by massive rainfall, has massive rivers, has a diverse wildlife, inhabited a number of forest dwellers called tribes who cherished environmentalist ethos. The region has been experiencing environmental depletion which was a result of colonial policies, exploitation of its ecological and mineral resources, large scale trans-border immigration and settlement of people, establishment of the plantation industry through deforestation, and the dependence of the dairy industry on grazing and other factors. This book depicts the precariousness of the environmental situation and traces the history and politics of such degeneration with a view to raise the consciousness of the people of the region towards their environment and save it from further aggravation.
